Lawn Party.

The spacious grounds surrounding the residence of Headmaster and Mrs. A. E. Bailey on Waltham street, were brilliantly illuminated on Thursday evening for the lawn party given by them in honor of the Senior Class of the Allen school. No less than 350 invitations were sent out for the affair and the guests attending numbered many prominent people from far and near. The seniors, Willard Lewis Blue of West Newton, Harley Caverly of Rutland, Vt., and William Henry Dial of Lockland, Ohio, assisted Mr. and Mrs. Bailey in receiving, while the five juniors acted as ushers. Mrs. Bailey was gowned in rainbow tinted silk grenadine with trimmings of pale green and much fine white chiffon. There was dancing until 10:30 P. M. in the gymnasium which was elaborately decorated for the occasion. F. W. Barlow had charge of the music and Knapp arranged all the decorations.

Board of Aldermen.

A special meeting of the board of aldermen was held Monday evening on call of the Mayor.

President Saltonstall was in the chair and these aldermen were present: Aldermen Bosson, Brown, Cabot, Carter, Doherty, Ellia, Ensign, Hunt, Palmer, Riley, Stone, Underwood, Weston and White.

After the reading of the call a recess was taken for an informal conference and upon reassembling at 8:27 p. m., the report of the Select committee appointed to consider the vacancy in the office of City Treasurer and Collector of Taxes was presented by Alderman Brown. The report recommended the election of Francis Newhall, the present Deputy Collector of Taxes, with salary at the rate of $2700 per year, the premium on his bond to be paid by the city. The report was received.

An order fixing the salary of the City Treasurer and Collector of Taxes at $2700 per annum was adopted.

Francis Newhall was then unanimously elected City Treasurer and Collector of Taxes for the unexpired term of Seth A. Raullett, deceased, 15 aldermen voting in his favor.

A communication from the Mayor recommending the designation of Chas. W. Ross Street Commissioner, as the public officer to be designated to have charge of the destruction of the gypsy and brown-tail moths in this city under the provisions of Sect. 4 Chap. 381 acts of 1905 was read and the recommendation adopted.

And at 8:35 p. m. the board adjourned.

School Board.

At the regular meeting of the school committee on Wednesday evening of last week important action was taken in the selection of teachers for next year.

Mr. Gorham presided and Miss Cobb and Messrs Saltonstall, Parker, Caverly, Smith, Wells, Bassett, Morton, Bothfeld and Knowlton were present.

Supt. Spaulding reported that the number of children to be transported from Waban in the 8th and 9th grades would be increased next year and recommended that provision be made for their instruction at Waban, by renting a hall for the kindergarten. The recommendation was adopted.

These resignations were accepted: Grace M. Hill, Blanche A. Chadwick, Julia A. Butler of the Claffin, Helena M. Kimball of the Adams, to take effect at end of school year, Arthur L. Goodrich of the High School taking effect May 8th. Emma R. Baker of the Barnard school was granted a year's leave of absence.

These reappointments of teachers for one year were authorized: High: Mr. Maxim, Misses Bailey, Hardy, McIntyre and Bates, Eliot: Misses Coggeshall and Stevens, Horace Mann: Mr. Carr, Misses Gillette and Bascom, Jackson: Miss Bickford, Pierce: Misses Cole, Sanders, Patterson and Wheelock, Franklin: Misses Gilles and Hoyt, Williams: Miss Studley, Hamilton: Miss Nolan, Hyde: Misses Lunt and Coyle, Wade: Misses Sullivan and Lawrence, Unassigned: Miss Searle, Roger Wolcott: Miss Perham, Mason: Mr. Copeland, Misses Coombs, Perkins, Shepherd, Ogilvie and Jones, Rice: Misses Morgan, Bartlett, Wallace and Spencer, Thompsonville, Miss Piper, Bigelow: Miss Murray, Mrs. Buell, Underwood: Miss Sterry, Penman-ship: Miss Miller.

These teachers were appointed on the permanent list: Jackson: Miss Stearns, Claffin: Misses Mason and Melard, Peirce: Mr. West, Misses Wilcox and Brooks, Franklin: Misses Bradley and Elder, Burr: Miss McKenzie as master and Miss James, Williams: Miss Bassett, Hyde: Miss Whitman, Emerson: Miss McLaughlin, Music: Mr. Walton. New teachers were elected as follows: Fred L. Thompson gymnastics and athletics High School, Clara L. Kramer, special assistant unassigned, Leah Russell, Underwood, Florence J. Everett, Bigelow, Antoinette Canfield, Barnard, Winnifred C McEvoy, Horace Mann, Elizabeth P. Anthony Bigelow, Mary T. Mears Peirce.

These appointments were made for the Nonantum Vacation School: Lillian R. Young, supervisor, Jos. R. Owens sloyd, M. Louise Randall, kindergarten, Nellie E. Terrell, asst kindergarten, Ida M. Thrasher, primary, Stella M. Tyler, cooking, Carolyn B. Brown, sewing, Mrs. Sarah L. Blue, sewing, Cora E. Bigelow, basketry, Fred Boudrot, janitor. Frank M. Redman was appointed janitor of the Emerson school at a salary of $75 per month. Wesley J. Furbush was chosen transient officer with Archibald Williams and Frank G. Lamson as assistants.

The graduating exercises at the High School were set for 2 p. m. on Saturday June 24 and the board adjourned.

At the Churches.

The Sunday evening services at St John's church, Newtonville, are to be discontinued during the summer and not resumed until the first Sunday in October.

The preliminary meeting of the Minister's Council, which precedes the general convention of the Swedenborgian denomination is to be held at the Newtonville New Church, beginning Tuesday, June 6th.

At Eliot church Children's Sunday is to be observed June 11th. Several children are to be baptized and those 7 years of age receive Bibles.

The closing exercises of the Sunday school connected with the New Church are to be held next Sunday. A review is to be given of the year's work.

The mid-week meetings at the Auburndale Congregational church during the summer and through October are to be held at 7:45 o'clock.

Children's Sunday is to be observed at the First Universalist church, Newtonville, June 11th.

At Grace church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be the service of baptism.

A covenant meeting will be held at the Immanuel Baptist church this evening at 7:45.

In accordance with established custom the Channing church and Sunday school will join in the observance of Flower Sunday next Sunday morning at 10:30.

On Monday evening, June 5th, Dr. McElveen of the Shawmut Church, one of Boston's most popular pastors, is to speak at the Congregational Church, Newtonville. The meeting is especially in the interest of the young people of the city, but all who desire to hear a live, earnest speaker along the lines of christian work are cordially invited to attend. The program offers excellent music, including solo singing by well known talent. During the social hour all can have the privilege of meeting Dr. McElveen, and receive most cordial welcome. A rare opportunity for any who are seeking a highly pleasant and profitable evening. Hour 7:45 p. m.

Services are held in Grace Episcopal church opposite Farlow Park every Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Strangers are always welcome.

Boston Floating Hospital.

The Boston Floating Hospital is in great need of old cotton or linen. Each pound saves the hospital 9 cents and it costs hundreds of dollars to supply material needed which would be saved by donations. Send if possible old cotton or linen for this work to Marion B. Morse, 61 Allerton road, Newton Highlands, or send postal card to Paul Smart, Duncklee Street: Elewyn Draper, Lincoln Street or Julius Hanna, Winchester Street and contributions will be called for.

NEW ENGLAND PROSPERING

And Yet Unchanged From Colonial Days.

New England history, thrift and progress, commenced when the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth in 1620. They worked untiringly and unceasingly for the establishment of commercial centres and industrial markets; and the present flourishing manufacturing and commercial activity of the Hub shows how well they succeeded. But Nature appeared on the scene long before our early progenitors and shaped the bays and shore line; piled up the mountains and artistically laid out the lake and valley lands. The "Crystal Hills" long, long years ago were the sacred haunt of the red men's Manitou, the laes and rivers, the aborigines' fishing grounds, and the magnificent sea coast was their haven of rest. Then the "pale face" came, and afterwards was the advent of the railroad.

Busy marts, high mountains, lake and inland sections and the entire sea coast were all linked by the great steam railroad. Climatic conditions have not changed, nothing new, except the opportunity to get there, and what additional charms hotel men and landscape artists have added. Summer is the vacation season. New England the vacation land, and the Boston and Maine Railroad the vacation road. You don't know New England unless you know her resorts; and the Boston and Maine General Passenger Department, Boston, has just published a beautiful book of 90 pages telling all about New England resorts, how to get there, where to go and what it costs. Send your address, the book is free for the asking.

Mothers' Rest Association.

The Mother's Rest Association are much in need of the following articles and any will be gratefully received: Plated teaspoons Blue flame oil stove Bedstead and mattress Rocking chairs Piazza chairs Hammocks Bureaus Towels If Mrs. H. H. Kendall Beacon street, Newton Centre is notified an express will be sent for any contribution. 3t

Nothing gives such entire satisfaction for relieving the terrible itching and irritation of brown-tail moth poisoning and for reducing the inflammation as Cabot's SULPHO-NAPHTHOL. Physicians and nurses have been most generous in their praise of this meritorious article as it is unequalled for effecting rapid cures. SULPHO-NAPHTHOL is also of great value for all insects and reptile poisoning, as well as for the many similar afflictions so common during the summer months.

Jiu-Jitsu by President Roosevelt's Teacher.

Japan succeeds because of the physical fitness of her soldiers. They practice Jiu-Jitsu, a system of physical culture which makes them giants of strength and endurance. The instructor of President Roosevelt, who learned all the high art of Jiu-Jitsu in Japan has been induced to reveal all these secrets to the American College of Physical Culture and Jiu-Jitsu, so that the American people may be instructed in the art by a series of photographs, in a manner which is at once comprehended by the person who receives the lessons, showing in detail, all the movements and leverages which make the Japanese famous.

We will send one FREE lesson to any one who is interested; we will furnish references from the best people in Boston and elsewhere, including trainers, professors of the leading universities in the United States, doctors, lawyers, etc.

1. Send Six cents in stamps for FREE lesson.

THE OBSERVING ROBIN.

How Does the Bird Know Just Where to Bore For Grubs?

I once observed a robin boring for grubs in a country dooryard. It is a common enough sight to witness one seize an angleworm and drag it from its burrow in the turf, but I am not sure that I ever before saw one drill for grubs and bring the big white morsel to the surface. The robin I am speaking of had a nest of young in a maple near by, and she worked the neighborhood very industriously for food. She would run along over the short grass after the manner of robins, stopping every few feet, her form stiff and erect. Now and then she would suddenly bend her head toward the ground and bring eye or ear for a moment to bear intently upon it. Then she would spring to boring the turf vigorously with her bill, changing her attitude at each stroke, alert and watchful, throwing up the grass roots and little jets of soil, stabbing deeper and deeper, growing every moment more and more excited, till finally a fat grub was seized and brought forth. Time after time during several days I saw her mine for grubs in this way and drag them forth. How did she know where to drill? The insect was in every case an inch below the surface. Did she hear it gnawing the roots of the grasses or did she see a movement in the turf beneath which the grub was at work? I know not. I only know that she struck her game unerringly each time. Only twice did I see her make a few thrusts and then desist, as if she had been for the moment deceived. —John Burroughs in Outing.

COQUELIN'S REPLY.

How the French Actor Got Into the Sub Rosa Club.

One of the most famous of the Quarter Latin clubs in Paris is the one which is called the Sub Rosa. The elder Coquelin, the great actor, was present one night at the club's weekly feast and applied for membership. Now, the only rules of the Sub Rosa men are: "Think much. Write little. Be as silent as you can." The presiding officer, with this last rule in mind, answered the applicant by placing before him a tumbler filled so full of water that another drop would have caused it to run over. Coquelin understood. The club membership was obviously full.

Over the table was suspended a rose, the club emblem. While the glass still stood before him Coquelin broke a petal from the flower and laid it so gently on the water that not a single drop escaped. A silent man could join and make no trouble.

Around the table ran a ripple of smiles and little hand claps and nods of approval, and then, as if of one accord, all began making bread balls. Then a cup was passed from hand to hand and each deposited his "ballot" in it, and all were found to be round. Not one had been pressed flat in sign of disapproval. So Coquelin joined the Sub Rosa club.—Warwick James Price in Success.

His Cottage His Castle.

The right of every Englishman to consider his cottage as his castle was never but once questioned, and that was by a London magistrate who was presiding in an action for trespass.

"My client," said the barrister in making his plea, "is a poor man—he lives in a hovel, and this miserable dwelling is in a forlorn and dilapidated state—but still, thank God, the laborer's cottage, however ruinous its plight, is still his sanctuary and his castle. Yes, the winds may enter it, and the rains may enter it, but the king cannot enter it."

"What! Not the reigning king?" asked the joke loving judge.

Feared the Worst.

Friday Vizer, a familiar negro about town in a certain part of Mississippi, had been found dead, and, being a member of no church or lodge—very unusual for a negro—there was no one to pray for his soul in the great beyond. A few old intimates, however, carried the body to the cemetery in a rude pine coffin, and Bob McKaven, one of the number, an old "befo' de wah darky," was called upon for a few remarks. Bob removed his hat and stepped reverently and sadly toward the open grave and in solemn, funeral tones said:

"Friday Vizer, you is gone. We hopes you is gone whar we expects you ain't!" —Lippincott's Magazine.

True Greatness.

True greatness, first of all, is a thing of the heart. It is all alive with robust and generous sympathies. It is neither behind its age nor too far before it. It is up with its age and ahead of it only just so far as to be able to lead its march. It cannot slumber, for activity is a necessity of its existence. It is no reservoir, but a fountain.—Roswell D. Hitchcock.

Both Strong.

"For a moment," he related, "I held my breath." "My," she interrupted admiringly, "how strong you must be!" He edged away, blushed and felt in his vest pocket for a clove.—Cleveland Leader.

His Line of Reasoning.

"What reason does he give for not paying his wife alimony?" "He says that marriage is a lottery and hence alimony is a gambling debt." —Collier's Weekly.

BENEATH THE GILDED DOME.

A week ago it was mentioned "exclusively" in this column that owing to the probabilities of certain things happening during the week, the Great and General Court might be detained at the State House until the middle of June. The Boston papers invariably make use of the word "exclusively" when desiring to call attention to their superior wisdom and smartness it is used in this place, to call attention to the fact that even a newspaper writer may make an error.

It was also said here last week that the legislature which makes law, appears in the transaction of business, to know no law, and it might have been added that it knows no order. That statement will stand undisputed by the facts connected with the legislative transactions of the closing week of the session of the year 1905. The Modes and Persians had laws which are mentioned in history as unalterable, but those laws could have been no more fixed in their character, than was the purposes of the legislature to prorogue on the 26th of May. To accomplish that purpose, everything was called upon to pay tribute; public and private interests; legislative reputation of long standing, and executive authority which has come down to us from the earliest period of the history of the commonwealth.

Take, for example, the Cambridge Subway Bill. Without touching the merits or demerits of that measure, the manner in which it became a law was not only unprecedented, but absolutely reprehensible and unjustifiable from any legislative standpoint. Where could have been the much vaunted public franchise league, and that Sprague-Luce Board of Trade, when that cloudburst hit the gilded dome? Were they dreaming, as they were two years ago, when the Gas bill became a law? When the Cambridge bill comes to the State House for repairs next winter, what will be public franchise league have to say about the manner of its escape, while that organization slumbered and slept, or will that mysterious body meanwhile have fallen into the sleep that knows no waking? Briefly stated the Subway Bill was taken up by the Committee on Rules Monday and sent, by that legislative St. Peter, to the Committee on Mercantile Affairs which was to give a hearing that day and if no remonstrance appeared, the bill was to be admitted. Of course there was no remonstrance, for the public franchise league was having its midday nap at that time. Tuesday the bill was reported and under the suspension of the rules, took its several hearings in the House. Two or three members undertook to ask questions, but the train did not stop for passengers as it went whizzing toward the Senate, where it arrived Wednesday, and all rules were again suspended while the train was rounding the curve, and heading for the Governor's room. Senator Cummings was the only one agile enough to catch on to the end of the train and ride in to the Executive Chamber, where it arrived out of breath, steam and electricity. Even Chairman Cummings for once lost his slow, methodical manner of speech, as he handed a pen to Governor Douglas and exclaimed, "Sign there, please."

If this is proper legislation, then that universally conceded meritorious measure, the B. and M. bill ought to have been admitted and made a law after that manner. If this is legislation, then advertising and giving public hearings are useless appendages, and sixty days is ample time to give to annual sessions. It was contended during the progress of the flight of this Subway legislation, that the legislation was necessary. That is by no means an adequate excuse for upsetting ordinary methods; all legislation is necessary to some interests, public or private, and the universal experience has been, that hasty legislation is always unsatisfactory and unwise. Cambridge knew a year ago that she wanted a subway, and if it took a year to get ready to act, the City could wait a year, rather than to secure a charter in the manner that this authority was secured last week.

Senator Gerrett undertook, when the bill reached the Senate, to ask some pertinent questions, based upon this hurry up action, but it was like talking against the wind, and even the significance of his interrogatories and warning, had no weight with the body where weight, of the live quality, has been sadly needed during the session.

One of the significant events of the closing day of the session was the announcement of Governor Douglas that he was not to be a candidate for reelection next fall. That announcement fell upon ears that could hear and eyes that could see as well as upon hearts that could gladly understand. If Curtis Guild should be up against any particular thing next fall that particular thing has not yet come within the range of the limelight. Now, if two of the three remaining candidates for Lieutenant Governor should conclude that his business affairs demanded their attention more than does the public, we might at least guess who the next Lieutenant Governor would probably be.

The watch presented to President Dana, by the Senate, was a beauty indeed, and it will at least keep a good watch upon the popular presiding officer of the Senate until that body again fills its high chair. It is expected that there will not be much of a contest in the selection of the President for 1906. Chaplain Horton also received a fine gold headed cane, and responded by delivering a wonderfully impassioned speech of acceptance. The honorable Senate must have thought pretty well of itself, after listening to the words of Dr. Horton, for it would have taxed the capacity of even an honorable Senate to have filled the bill as drawn by the eloquent Chaplain.

In bidding adieu to the legislature of 1905, we cannot even hope to meet again, for if the hand of death should be so kind as to spare all the members another year, the hand of political preferment will hardly be as kind. That coy maiden usually makes love with one hand behind her, and when the day comes for selection, she thrusts that hand into the grab-bag, utterly regardless of the feelings of the man who had grown to believe that he was perpetually in public favor, only to realize, after all, that he was a squeezed orange. Seldom are the names of more than half of the members filed away at the close of a session with the legislative chronicle, "To the next General Court." Functus Officio.

WHITNEY-SEAVER.

A pretty home wedding, which took place last week Wednesday, was that of Miss Nellie Gertrude Seaver the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Seaver of Newton Lower Falls, and Mr. Josiah Fairbanks Whitney of Wellesley.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Edwin Lacount of Gardner, former pastor of the Methodist church at the home of the bride on Grove street at 8 o'clock and was followed by a reception until 10 o'clock.

The bride was gown in white crepe de chine over silk and wore a veil of silk tulle, fastened with lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and brides roses. Miss Maude Garrington of Waltham gown in pink crepe over pink silk and carrying a bouquet of roses was the maid of honor. Mr. Whitney was attended by Mr. Stanley Whitney of Wellesley as best man, and Messrs Joseph H. and William P. Seaver were the ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney are enjoying a wedding trip to Old Point Comfort, Va.

LETTER TO THOS. W. WHITE, NEWTON UPPER FALLS.

Dear Sir: Would you like to hear of a 20-year paint?

Mr. James A. O'Neil's house, Henderson, N.C. was painted 20 years ago with Devco lead-and-zinc, and never painted again till last year; it then looked better than common paint in half that time.

The reason is: Devco is all paint and true paint; while the common paints are part true and part false. Don't pay to monkey with paint.

And Devco costs less than any of 'em; not by the gallon, of course; by the house and year. That's how to reckon it. Go by the name.

Yours truly

We have commented before on the excellent representatives this city has in the present legislature, and the closing events in the General Court add emphasis to that opinion. President Dana, who has made an admirable presiding officer of the Senate was presented with a handsome gold watch with many expressions of esteem. Possibly few realize what an arduous task, a conscientious man can make of such a position as Mr. Dana has filled. Every measure coming before that body has been carefully examined by him, and the high quality of legislation, in no small degree, to be credited to him. In the House, both Mr. Warren and Mr.
Lowell have done creditable work, and Mr. Lowell has been appointed on the important work given the recess committee on the street railway and railroad laws. It is not the fault of these gentlemen that the state tax has been so largely increased, and we trust the city will continue the present high standard, in selecting its representatives in the future.

Memorial Day with its hodge podge of sentiment, sport, patriotism and play has come and gone again. That of 1905 stands high, not only in the important feature of the weather, but in the high quality of the proceedings under the auspices of the Grand Army. The speeches at its banquet were excellent in quality and concise in statement. They arouse considerable enthusiasm and many of the suggestions were admirable. That of Congressman Weeks, although not new, was well expressed and we hope will lead to some agreement that Memorial Day should be observed on Sunday. There is every reason to believe that the sentiment of thoughtful citizens will heartily favor the suggestion and it needs only a leader to become a fact.

The choice of Mr. Francis Newhall as city treasurer, is another demonstration of the steady support which civil service principles have had in this city for over twenty years. Mr.
Newhall has a thorough knowledge of the duties of his new position, and in the very difficult work of collecting taxes we believe he will not only equal his predecessor in efficiency, but will exceed him in the tactful handling of delinquent taxpayers. In the higher realms of finance, Mr.
Newhall will have the hearty assistance of the members of the board of aldermen, and the city's interests are undoubtedly in safe hands.

The state tax assessed on this city exceeds by $30,000 that of last year, and on the present basis of valuation will add about fifty cents to the present tax rate. There is therefore small prospect of a reduction in the rate for 1905.

Lasell Commencement.

Commencement at Lasell began Wednesday evening with a reception to the senior class in the school parlors. Prof. Bragdon was assisted in receiving by Miss Caroline Carpenter, Miss Martha G. Haskell, class presiclass vice president. Yesterday at 3 p. m. the studio reception was given followed in the evening with the Commencement concert. Tonight at 8 o'clock the joint banquet of the Literary societies of the senior class takes place. Saturday at 3 p. m. the exhibition drill is to be given by the battalion. Bishop D. A. Goodell gives the sermon to the graduating class at 10:45 a. m. on Sunday. Monday is Class Day and on Tuesday the commencement exercises include an address by Bishop Chas. H. Fowler, at 10:45, singing in the Crow's Nest at 12:30, business meeting of the Alumnae at 2:30, a public meeting of the Alumnae with address by Sarah Corey Bray, '83 at 3 p. m. followed by a social hour.

The Newton Nurses Alumnae Association give the graduating class an outing next Tuesday. A special car will take the party to Wayland for refreshments and an enjoyable trip is planned. Miss Isabelle Drury, who has been a faithful worker in the

FRANCIS NEWHALL.

Mr. Francis Newhall, the new city treasurer, was born in Norway, Me., about forty years ago, but has lived the larger part of his life in West Newton, coming here in 1883. From that date until 1899, Mr. Newhall was employed by the sugar brokerage firm of Rufus C. Cushman & Co., and then entered the employ of the city treasurer as paymaster. On the death of Mr. C. B. Coffin in 1902, he was given the position of deputy collector of taxes.

He is treasurer of the West Newton Co-operative bank, a member of the Newton Boat Club, and attends the Unitarian church at West Newton.
He resides on Webster street, West Newton, with his wife and a family of two children.

FELTON-WEST.

Mr. Herbert Luther Felton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Felton, of West Newton was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Anna Banks West the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas.
Alfred West of Somerville. The ceremony was performed at the First Unitarian church of that city, at 4 o'clock by its minister, the Rev.
Wm. H. Pierson.

The bride's dress was of point applique lace with satin court train, and she wore a point applique veil.
The bridesmaids, the Misses Clara Wagner of New York city, Gertrude Davis Hall of Somerville, Martha Banks Cobb of Rockland, Me., and Eleanor Withington Leatherbee of West Newton were gowned alike in white lingerie dresses over blue, wore lingerie hats and carried white parasols with shower of pink sweet peas. The groom's sister, Mrs. Archibald E. Rice was to have acted as matron of honor, but on account of a death in the family was unable to fill that position.

The best man was Mr. Walter Eben Felton of Dedham and the ushers were Messrs. Arthur Trevitt Love, Porter Belknap Chase, Dr.
Irving J. Fisher, Clifton Felton Leatherbee, Robert Wm. Leatherbee of West Newton and Chas. Clarence Batchelder of Boston.

There was a largely attended reception at the residence of the bride, 18 Summit avenue, Somerville, immediately after the ceremony, the bride and groom being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. West and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Felton.

Mr. and Mrs. Felton are to be at home after December 1st at 86 Prince street, West Newton.

Golden Wedding.

The residence of Prof. and Mrs.
Jesse B. Thomas on Warren street was thronged with relatives and friends on Tuesday evening the occasion being their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Nearly 400 were present including guests from the Newtons, Boston, San Francisco, New York and Chicago, also members of the Faculty and students of the Newton Theological Institution. The floral tributes were many and there were numerous beautiful and valuable gifts of gold and dainty bric-a-brac. Prof. and Mrs. Thomas were married in Chicago in 1855 and were settled in Brooklyn, N. Y. for 20 years coming to Newton Centre later when Prof.

OBSERVE EVENT NEXT WEEK.

The 80th Anniversary of the Newton Theological Institution will be celebrated during the coming week.

On Sunday, June 4, the Rev. C. H. Watson of Arlington delivers the baccalaureate sermon at the morning services.

Monday and Tuesday will be taken up mainly with examinations, and on Tuesday evening Rev. G. H. Ferris of New Haven, Ct., will address the Y. M. C. A.

The alumni will hold a memorial meeting with a reading of the necrology in the chapel on Wednesday morning at 9.30. At 10.30 the alumni will be addressed by Prof.
A. B. Hart, LL.D., of Harvard, whose subject will be "John Knox as a Man of the World."

At noon the alumni class meeting will be held, followed at 12.45 by the dinner in Sturtevant hall.

The remainder of the day will be taken up with a business meeting of the alumni in Colby hall and addresses by Rev. G. D.
Boardman and Rev. C. B. Crane in Colby chapel.

At 6 p. m. the faculty reception and afternoon tea for the alumni will be held in Colby hall. At 7.45 Prof. J. C. Bragot of Vassar will deliver the annual oration on "Christ and the Christian Conceptions of the Race."

Thursday, at 10.45, the graduation exercises will be held, the graduating class will be addressed by Prof. C. R. Brown. The Trustees' dinner will be held at 12.45, followed by speaking by representatives of the board of trustees, the Alumni Association and others.

The closing exercises will be the reception by the students at 4 p. m. in the Hills Library.

EMERY-WEAVING.

In Woodbury, New Jersey, on May 25th, Mr. Moritz Hauptmann Emery, formerly of Newton, was married to Miss Margaret Agnes Weaving of Berkshire, England.
The ceremony took place in Christ Church, Rev. Malcolm Taylor officiating, and only the immediate relatives were present. The bride wore a white silk gown and veil and carried Bride roses.

A wedding lunch was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sheppard Emery, where the bride had been visiting.
The couple then left for a wedding trip, after which they will take up their residence in Troy, New York, where Mr.
Emery holds the position of Director of the Emma Willard Conservatory of Music.

Musical.

The ambitious program given by the music pupils of the Mr. Ida school, Monday evening, was a thoroughly interesting one, both from its diversity and from its excellence.

The choruses were given with a freedom, purity of tone and enthusiasm that speaks volumes for the work of the vocal department. Miss Wing's voice showed to good advantage in St. Suen's "My heart at thy sweet voice," and Miss Rogers gave a charming rendering of Chaminade's "Summer," showing great control of voice in that difficult composition. In response to a warm encore, she sang "Because of Thee."

Among the piano solos, those by Miss Pauline Hanson (two fine sketches by Lindolf); Miss Whitcomb's nocturne of Greig; the Schumann pieces by Miss Lovette; Jensen's Cassandra played by Miss Hastings, and the "Autumn" of Chaminade by Miss Ona Hanson, deserve special mention.

The great C major concerto of Bach, for three pianos, had a worthy presentation at the hands of nine of the pupils—three for each movement. The last movement in particular was given with understanding and spirit.

The assistance of that fine artist, Mr. Jacques Hoffmann, made possible a worthy rendering of Sjogren and Beethoven, sonatas for violin and piano. Miss Brundage and Miss Rogers, who divided the piano part of these sonatas between them, played most artistically and showed an unusual grasp of ensemble effects.

Miss Powell played with Mr. Hoffmann the Prelude in an interesting manner, but did her most striking work in the movements of the Chopin concerto—in the slow movement, showing a control of tone color and a brilliancy and finish in the allegro that was remarkable. The entire program gave evidence of careful, faithful study of masterpieces that cannot be too often heard.

Japanese Ladies and Suicide.

While Japanese ladies never committed harakiri, the honorable equivalent was death by a stab in the neck from her own dirk, a weapon which she generally carried in her girdle to be used in time of need.

Where a Roman dame would in ancient times have plunged her dagger into her own heart, a Japanese heroine preferred to thrust the weapon into her neck, and there is no record of either male or female in Japan ending existence in the fashion that is so often depicted in western novels and less frequently perhaps in real life.—Nineteenth Century.

Tides on the Great Lakes.

In theory there must be lunar tides on the great lakes, although they may be too small to be detected in bodies of water so much more affected by winds and by differences in barometric pressure. This latter influence is so potent that in Lake Michigan it sometimes causes disturbances resembling tidal waves when the surface of the water is otherwise quite calm.

Reconciled to It.

The car was crowded to its full capacity, and the two who had just entered were compelled to hold to the same strap.

"We seem to be sentenced to hang," observed the maid.

"Yes," whispered the young man as his fingers closed over hers. "Capital punishment."—Chicago Tribune.

A Little Mixed.

"Johnson wants to borrow some money of me. Do you know anything about him?"

"I know him as well as I do you. I wouldn't let him have a dollar."—New Yorker.

Memorial Day.

Perfect weather was the crowning feature of Memorial Day on Tuesday and was much appreciated by the Grand Army and their many friends who remembered the pouring rain of 1904.

The veterans were busy during the morning hours in decorating the graves of their former comrades in the various cemeteries in Newton and the surrounding towns, and were grateful to the Newton Street Railway Co. for the complimentary use of a street car for the purpose.

Several graves were decorated at Mt. Auburn, and an interesting feature was the special service at the grave of the former City Treasurer, Major Seth A. Ranlett, where taps were sounded by a trumpeter from Fort Banks, and at the sound of the bugle every veteran within hearing immediately stood at "attention." The usual observance took place in the afternoon, the members of Chas.
Ward Post 62 meeting at noon at Armory Hall, Newton, where an elaborate lunch was served by a committee in charge of Mr. John Flood. In the meantime the city government was gathering at City Hall, and the Chief Marshal, Hon. John W. Weeks was entertained with his staff at the Hunnewell club.

At 1:30 the parade formed at the junction of Church and Eldredge streets and passed in review before Mayor Weed and the City government, who were stationed on Farlow park. The police made a fine appearance under command of Lieut.
W. P. Soule and with the High School battalion were received with considerable applause throughout the march.

The chief Marshal was accompanied by two young lads, Master Sinclair Weeks and Master Burton Ames, who preceded the formidable array of staff officers, under charge of Col. Isaac F. Kingsbury as Adjutant and Col.
Walter L. Sanborn as Chief of Staff.

The march was by Centre street to Commonwealth ave, where lemonade was served by a bevy of young ladies in charge of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Holden. The procession then passed through Kenwood ave and Ashton park, Homer st and Walnut street to the Newton cemetery. Here the usual ceremony was held at the Soldier's monument, Commander W. T. Shepherd in charge. The chaplain, S. P.
Putnam offered prayer, the band played Pleyel's hymn, Past Dept Commander W. A. Wetherbee read Lincoln's Gettysburg speech, and after the monument had been decorated with flowers, taps were sounded by Bugler G. A. Bergonzoni of the Naval Brigade, followed by the booming of cannon. After America had been sung the march was again resumed to the parade ground near the High School where evening parade was formed under direction of Capt.
E. R. Springer.

The High School battalion then marched to their drill hall and the Grand Army and invited guests proceeded to Temple hall for a banquet.

After the menu had been discussed to music of the Newton Cadet Band Commander Shepherd in a neat speech called attention to the flag which decorated the stage, saying that it had been in the war of over forty years ago. The Star Spangled Banner was then sung with enthusiasm.

Mayor Weed was introduced as the responsible person for all the virtues and vices of Newton and said:

I have always found the Memorial Day exercises impressive and inspiring. The members of the Grand Army furnish a vital link between us and the stirring events of the war days. To review the memory of those who gave up their lives in the service of their country cannot but quicken and elevate our patriotism and bring home to us anew its true measure—sacrifice—the thought that there are ideals of duty to which we owe more than to our own comfort, property or lives even.

The present makes a different but none the less insistent demand upon our patriotism, and it may well be asked what is its present day value in sacrifice of inclination, time or money? We love to see good men in office, life and property secure, the people's burden light the peoples work well done.

But if this longing is placed in the balance, will indifference or indolence outweigh it, or self interest or personal greed or fear of abuse or personal enmity. If such is to be the measure of our patriotism, we need not complain if while we are framing excuses for not caring for the nations welfare in the interests of all the people, some one else is found doing the work for his private gain and advantage.

To correct abuses, we are prone to rely on changes in existing laws and methods. But the essential factor is something more than good laws or perfected machinery and system. It was not breastworks or rifle pits which stopped Pickett at Gettysburg.
What was required then, what is needed now, are men full of the patriotism whose ideals of service to the nation, state or city are above considerations of self interest and make men ready to sacrifice all if need be to the call of duty.

Senator W. F. Dana, introduced as a representative of the State of Massachusetts gave a brief account of what had been done with the money recently received from the U. S. Government and said:

"It is a good thing that as each year comes around we should observe this day. The war you fought was a good war, it was a great service to mankind. It has another significance in showing the rising generation that what we possess has not come down to us without an effort, and that what we have is the result of a struggle.
The heritage we prize is all the dearer, when we study its cost, and we should resolve to transmit it undiminished and unimpaired to our children and to our children's children."

Two great factors seem to augur well for the future of the republic.
The President has emphasized one in showing the people that we must work together as brother to brother and the other has been the sight of a Democratic Governor and a Republican legislature working together for the best interests of the Commonwealth, and the spirit animating the state government has been to serve all the people to the best of its ability.

Capt. Weeks was given a hearty reception and his words were received with great enthusiasm. He said that he was concerned for the future of Memorial Day, after the veterans of the War had left this work to another generation. He said that the average man does not take the proper view of the day, preferring to use it as a holiday. Instead it is the day of days when something should be done to further the spirit of patriotism which our veterans have done so much to preserve. He favored the observance of Memorial Day on Sunday, when the veterans could attend divine service and then decorate the graves, taking the children and endeavoring to instill into them the spirit of patriotism.

He was sorry to learn that the young men in the High School were not to receive military drill (great applause.) He did not criticize the school committee, but military drill is of more importance to young men than anything they do at the school.
It gives them poise, it gives system, it gives discipline, and makes him a more useful man. It also gives the incentive for young men to enter the militia, which is one of the main props of our system of government.
It is honor enough for any man to serve our country in times of peace it is glory enough for any man to serve the country in time of war.

On motion of Chas. C. Bragdon, it was unanimously voted that it was the sense of the meeting that the school committee reconsider its vote abolishing military drill.

Major Green of the High School battalion made a brief speech thanking the Grand Army for its support of the drill and for its encouragement and assistance. He believed that this training was the best which could be given and was a necessary part of a man's education.

Rev. F. B. Matthews said it had been a great event to his church to act as hosts for the Grand Army on Sunday. It had inspired patriotism among his people to an unusual degree. I have been reared in the atmosphere of patriotism and for over thirty years have stood in the constant favor of what you men did for me in fighting the war. I believe in the sacredness of Memorial Day. It should be dedicated to our fathers.
It should be observed as we observe Sunday. We would not think of going fishing or playing base ball on Sunday and our boys should be taught to give up their sports on Memorial day and hold these things as sacred.

Lieut. Commander Gustave Kaem-merling U. S. N. who was with Admiral Dewey at Manila Bay, was received with three cheers, and he regretted that orders had been given the U. S. officers to say nothing regarding events in the East which were of interest to everyone. He had been impressed with the great importance of target practise and thought that pistol practise should be given in every school. In the navy at present, we do not look for hits but for the misses, as they are so few. In every battle the aggressor has the fight half won, and if we had known as much about target practise at Manila Bay as we do now, that fight would have been won in fifteen minutes.

Mr. Samuel Ward responded for the Ward family, for whom the post was named and said they appreciated the honor given them. He knew of the men who had gone to the war from Newton particularly in Co. K, and said that the city is not only proud of what you did then, but for what you have been doing in your life here since the war closed. We want to honor character, right living and love of country, and have these virtues instilled into the minds of everyone on this day, when we are lifted to a higher level of living.

Brief speeches were also made by Past Commander J. H. Wentworth, S. V. and Commander H. J. McCammon S. W. V. and after the singing of America the festivities came to an end.

A pleasing innovation was the scraps of song which were interpolated between the speeches, under the leadership of Comrade Wetherbee.

Heroism Rewarded.

Years ago a vessel was wrecked off the northwest coast of Ireland. Crowds gathered on the beach to witness the scene. A few brave men came forward and put out to the sinking vessel. As they came back to the shore with their burden of human lives the watchers cried: "Have you got them all? Are they all saved?" "Yes," was the answer, "all but one. If we had stayed for him all would have been lost." Instantly a stalwart fellow stepped out from the crowd and called for volunteers. The mother begged the young man not to go, saying: "Your father was lost at sea; your brother William sailed away, and we have never heard from him. If you go my all will be lost." Embracing her, he said, "I must go." In a short time he was seen returning. "Have you got your man?" cried the watchers. "Yes," was the reply, "and tell mother it is brother William."

The "Undertaker's Friend."

Both men and women when they decide to "wrap up" do so by increasing the number of layers of clothing in front over those on the back of the body. It is a great mistake. The main "telephone exchange" of the nerves of the body lies in the spinal cord, situated in the spinal canal, and this exchange has immediate, complete and instantaneous connection with the skin of the whole of the back of the trunk and is much more sensitive than that of the skin in front.

It behooves us, then, to see that the back is covered, if not more than, at least as much as, the front, between the shoulders. In men the thin back of the waistcoat is "the undertaker's best friend." In women it is the space between the top of the corset and the center of the neck, more especially in that type of garment popularly known as the "pneumonia blouse."—London

The Pulpit Buffoon.

Sir William Dugdale applied the name "pulpit buffoon" to Hugh Peters (1638-1690), the joke loving Puritan clergyman, whose pulpit peculiarities made him a notable figure during the English civil war, when he held the post of chaplain to the parliamentary army. Peters was a born jester, and the pulpit set no bar to his broad humor and pungent witticisms—not always in the best taste, as, for example, when turning the hourglass while preaching a long sermon he said, "Now, my friends, let us have another glass." His pulpit appeals were very effective in winning recruits to the parliamentary army, and when a town was to be taken by assault the storming parties were first stimulated to the task by a rousing sermon from their chaplain.

The Stimpson Pass.

The Stimpson pass always has been the great highway of travel from Switzerland into Italy. It was used by Cesar and his legions as far back as 50 B. C., and although Napoleon happened to use the St. Bernard pass, he recognized the superior importance of the Stimpson and ordered a military road to be built over it to serve in future campaigns. It was begun in 1800, but before it was completed, in 1806, the fortunes of the battlefield led the warrior elsewhere, so he never saw it.
While thus constructed for war, no array ever crossed it. Instead of furnishing a route for cannons, it became a useful medium for international commerce.—St. Louis Republic.

Beyond Settlement.

Molly—What makes you so haughty when you meet George? Why don't you make up with him? Polly—Because I should have to demand an explanation, and I can't remember what it is I'm supposed to be offended about.
—Detroit Free Press.

A Manly Man.

He—You say you like a manly man.
What is your idea of a manly man?
She—Well, for instance, one who doesn't stay and stay and stay just because he knows the girl isn't strong enough to throw him out.

Literary Notes.

Wide human interest is the striking thing about the June McClure's. The college man is the first concerned in the sensational disclosures of "The College Athlete" which tells, for the first time, some astonishing facts about the financial arrangements by which some of the "stars" are secured and kept at college. Typhoid fever, Samuel Hopkins Adams proves in one of his powerful and illuminating articles, is an entirely unnecessary evil. Helen Keller, who has been so marvelously educated in spite of her lack of sight, speech, and hearing has written the story of her college days, a charmingly modest story of her wonderful conquest of her limitations.

Another of the reminiscent stories of the old-time country boy of Eugene Wood "The Revolving Year" will stir tender memories in every old country boy, and give him plenty to laugh over, too. Sir Walter Scott, the prince of prose romancers, is the subject of Prof. George Edward Woodberry's second paper in the series. He is writing for McClure's on the great masters of literature. Five good short stories, all prototypically illustrated complete the list. A comedy of snobbery is told by George Randolph Chester in "Barclay Day at Tatt House." The exaggerated Americanism of it will make the country hug itself. Mrs. Wilson Woodrow has another humorous tale of life in a Colorado mining camp, wherein the "New Missioner" again appears. One of New York's assistant district attorneys, Arthur Train, has written out of the experience of his office, "The Jailbird," a tragic story of an habitual criminal. "In Lovers' Meeting," by Harvey J. O'Higgins, is a washerwoman's love story a tale of rare literary quality, with a tender and sympathetic touch. Inez Haynes Gillmore, in "The Story That Took" has made an amusing story on novel lines.

"THE THREE MOST BEAUTIFUL ROSES" BY PAUL DE LONGPRE.

At the urgent solicitation of the Woman's Home Companion, Mr. Paul de Longpre, who is the greatest painter of flowers in the world, consented to make a painting of what he considered "The Three Most Beautiful Roses," and the painting is without doubt one of the masterpieces of this great artist. This magnificent picture is reproduced in all its original grandeur on the cover of the Woman's Home Companion for June. Although this cover is an accurate reproduction of a painting worth hundreds of dollars, yet the June number, which has this exquisite cover, may be obtained at any first-class news-stand or direct from the publishers for the trivial sum of only ten cents. Mr. Paul de Longpre is justly styled the "King of Flower Painters." He not only paints roses, but every flower that grows, and is the highest authority on flowers. His paintings are found in the most select homes. Some have sold for as much as seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00). Artists, art critics and competent judges all agree that the covers of the Woman's Home Companion far excel those of any other magazine. The Woman's Home Companion is a magazine which in beauty and excellence, art, stories, illustrations and fashions, etc., excels all other home and family magazines. The Woman's Home Companion is published by The Crowell Publishing Company, New York City, also Chicago, Ill., at One Dollar a year, and is the favorite magazine in nearly half a million homes, where it is read each and every issue by three million people. 2t

Mayor Dunne of Chicago, General O. O. Howard, Charles Warren Stoddard and Dallas Lore Sharp head the list of contributors to the June National Magazine. Mayor Dunne's theme is "Chicago and Municipal Ownership," and he declares there are ninety millions of water in the stocks of the Chicago street railways that will never be paid for by the city. General Howard's paper, illustrated, deals with the Lincoln Memorial University in the Tennessee mountains. Mr. Stoddard, in "Rudyard Kipling at Nanakia," quotes many of Kipling's letters—vividly personal and picturesque—to illustrate Kipling's methods of literary work. Mr. Sharp, America's foremost poet-naturalist, tells the story of "Little Bob of the Stone Mile," otherwise the chipmunk with apt illustrations. Anna McClure Sholl's great serial, "A Comedy of Masks," ends in this number, and another serial, "Michael Ryan, Capitalist," by F. F. D. Alberv, is begun. There are short stories by Mary A. Clarke, Henry L. Kiner, Grieg Lapham, A. Decker, Richard S. Graves and J. F. Conrad and poem by Henry L. Kiner, Elizabeth Ashmun, Samuel Loer, Wallace D. Coburn, Emma C. Dowd and James Ball Naylor. "Affairs at Washington," by Joe Mitchell Chapple, lavishly illustrated with portraits of current celebrities; "The Home," a miscellany of helpful hints a witty review in verse of Haeckel's "Wonders of Life," by "An Ignoramus," and the "Cowboy Poet's" unique sketch of the "Cowboy Artist"—the famous Chas. M. Russell—are among the many other features of the best number the National has ever sent out.

The June Cosmopolitan is filled from cover to cover with a host of entertaining and interesting stories and articles. Probably the most striking feature of the number is entitled "The Modern Robin Hood," by Alfred Henry Lewis. Mr. Lewis has written of a truly remarkable man, Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan, of New York, whose methods in assisting and retaining his constituency is one of the political scandals of this country. Mr. David Graham Phillips contributes an ingenious and convincing essay to show what John D. Rockefeller, Jr., could do with the fortune he will inherit. Josiah Flynt has an amusing account of "Town Life in the Indian Territory." Broughton Brandenburg writes somewhat alarmingly of the economic consequences to the Western world of China's awakening. Acton Davies, the famous dramatic critic, tells of "Society Amateur Actresses;" Karl Edwin Harriman has a well illustrated paper on the life of the circus clown John Burroughs explains in an essay of great interest the difference between animal and human intelligence. The great industries series is continued by Clarence B. Lane, of the Department of Agriculture, who treats of "Butter, Cheese and Condensed Milk as Factory Products" The fiction which is beautifully illustrated, is contributed by Octave Thanet, Herbert Quick, George Randolph Chester, Will Levington Comfort and T. Jenkins Hains. Richard LeGallienne contributes a charming love poem which has full page illustrations by George T. Tobin.

Coming Attractions

Keith's Theatre—The Fadette

Woman's Orchestra, the famous organization of female musicians of which Bostonians are so proud, will begin their annual summer engagement at Keith's the week of June 5.

This year as last there will be 40 members in the orchestra and popular music, which was so delightfully appreciated last season will be the order of their programs. The doors of the theatre will not open until 1.30 and the first concert by the Fadettes will be about 1.45. Included in the list are McIntyre and Heath, the famous black face comedians, Terley, a new and novel European illusion; Mr. and Mrs. Voelker violinist; Zazell and Vernon, comedy bar performers; Geo. W. Day, one of the cleverest blackface comedians in business, and Fox and Clark, in their specialty, "The Old Curiosity Shop".

On Monday, Henry W. Savage again offered his standard musical success "The Prince of Pilsen" at the Tremont Theatre, with the best cast he has ever provided for this most delightful work, and the verdict was that the production as a whole is bigger, better and brighter than ever. This is the fourth run of the "The Prince of Pilsen" in Boston within the past three years, a truly remarkable record when one stops to consider.

MARSHMAN-CURRIER.

One of the prettiest weddings of early June took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Currier on Hunnewell avenue, Tuesday evening when their daughter Addie Goddard was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick Simeon Marshman son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Marshman. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 by Rev. Woodman Bradbury pastor of the Old Cambridge Baptist Church and only the relatives and a few intimate friends were present. The best man was Mr. Charles G. Thompson of Winchester and the maid of honor Miss Annie L. Marshman, sister of the groom. The children who assisted at the ceremony were Helen M. Bowman of Arlington as ring bearer and Hazel Sheldon of Greenfield, Dorothy Burbank of Rutland, Vermont, Nadine Bowman of Arlington and Audie Currier of Newton as bridesmaids. The bride wore a costume of white crepe de chine and chignon with a veil and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were gowned in white chiffon with garlands of pink roses and carried bouquets of sweet peas. The ushers were Messrs Albert H. Waitt of Newton, Ernest W. Grant of Hartford, Conn., Clinton T. Fisher of Watertown and Charles O. Knight of Worcester. A largely attended reception followed from 8 to 10 the bridal couple receiving in a room of tall palms, asparagus vine and carnations. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Currier, parents of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Marshman, parents of the groom. The rest of the house was beautified with a profusion of palms and cut flowers and in an upper room were displayed the presents consisting of cut glass, many useful articles and dainty bric-a-brac. During the evening and while the refreshments were being served an artistic musical program was rendered by an orchestra. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Marshman will reside at 14 Royal street, Allston, where they are to be at home, October 4 and 18.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Edison Company Offers $100,000 for Burying Electric Wires.Street Railway and Pipe Line Companies Ask for New Locations.

The regular meeting of the board was held Monday night. President Saltonstall in the chair. Other members present were Aldermen Baker, Bishop, Bosson, Bowen, Brown, Cabot, Carter, Dennison, Doherty, Ellis, Ensign, Hunt, Palmer, Stone and White.

HEARINGS.

At the hearing on petition of the N. E. Tel. and Tel. Co. to lay underground conduits in various streets, Mr. H. S. Allen appeared for the Company.

Mr. Allen. This petition is in accordance with the agreement of our Company to lay about five miles of underground each year for a period of three years. These streets have been agreed upon as the result of conference with your Inspector of Wires and City Engineer, and work is to begin as soon as your board takes favorable action. Several other streets have been considered but which are the more important have not yet been determined and another petition is to be presented later in the season. The same character of work is to be done as in previous years, and the ariel wires are to be removed as soon as possible after the conduits are built.

In answer to an inquiry, Mr. Allen stated that no pole locations are asked for at the present time and if needed will be asked for subsequently. Letters of remonstrance from Frank L. Holman and Alice Akins on Oakland st. and in favor from Geo. W. Bishop on Walnut st. were read and referred to the committee on Public Franchises etc.

On the petition of the N. and W. Gas Light Co. for two poles on Grove-land ave Bishop W. F. Mallalieu appeared in opposition saying that there was but one party to be accommodated and the present pole opposite his house was an eyesore. The new poles were to be erected on the other side of the street but the wires would have to pass through his trees. He entered an emphatic protest against granting the petition.

On the petition of the N. and W. Gas Light Co. for four poles on Commonwealth ave opposite Valentine st. Alderman Ellis entered a strong protest, as there was a line of poles at present in the center of the street. Thos. Gahan also spoke in opposition. No one appeared on the petition of J. C. Ayres to locate a 2 1/2 H. P. gas engine at 975 Chestnut st. and it was referred to the Committee on Public Franchises etc.

Alderman Bishop at the request of the president drew three traverse jurors for the Superior Court, Cambridge, June 12th. Clarence W. Stetson, Dedham st., Frank J. Monks, Oak ave and Robert R. Bishop Jr, Beacon st.

A communication from the Mayor relative to authorizing the new Collector to collect unpaid taxes and assessments was received.

A communication from Public Buildings Commissioner Elder as to application of A. Landry to erect a garage off Oak street Ward 5 was received and granted upon motion of Alderman White. Alderman White said that the building abutted upon the railroad on one side and upon the Hale estate on the other. There was no objection from abutters and the proposed building was 150 feet from any other structure.

Communications from the Mass. Highway commission concerning "speed law" governing automobiles and motor cycles, Chap. 366 Acts 1905, and from J. E. Shaw, Chief Mass. District Police concerning explosives, Chap 290, Acts 1905 were referred to the committee on Rules etc.

PETITIONS.

A petition of R. Ashton Lawrence et al for additional police and for street lighting until daybreak at Chestnut hill was referred to the Mayor.

A petition of F. R. Moore et al for street watering on Harrison street after considerable discussion regarding unaccepted streets was referred to the Mayor and Street Commissioner.

Petitions of J. L. White et al for street watering on Camden road and Rowe st and of J. B. Thomas et al for street watering on Warren st were referred to the committee on Public Works.

Hearings on June 26th at 7:45 p. m. were assigned upon these petitions: Newton St. Rwy Company for location of tracks on Boylston and Elliot sts; Newton St. Rwy Company for location of tracks from Commonwealth ave over private land, across Auburn st and over other private land to Riverside; Mass. Pipe Line Company and the Boston Consolidated Gas Co for pipe locations in California and Bridge sts; J. A. Potter et al for re-moral of trees on Waltham st, and N. E. Tel. and Tel. Co. for attachments on Chase st and for pole location on Vernon st.

These petitions were granted: C. F. Eddy to move a building from Washington st to Waltham st; S. W. Tucker for an Auctioneer license; D. F. Kearney for a wagon license; and H. H. Tilton and Co for permission to manufacture and sell fireworks off Staniford st.

These applications to apportion highway betterments on Green st were granted: Margaret McAleer, $24.75, ten parts; Eliza Harrigan, $15, ten parts, Elizabeth Harrigan, $12.50, ten parts and M. J. Joyce, $35, five parts.

These petitions were referred to the Committee on Public Franchises etc: F. W. Young, 1 pool table, Robt Weir for 1 wagon and 3 carriage licenses, Arthur Pouliot, for 1 wagon license; Samuel Orenstein for junk and Donabed Boghosian for common victualler license.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

These reports were received: From committee on Claims: Recommending assuming Boylston street betterments assessed on D. S. Farnham and S. A. Piper (majority) recommending assuming Boylston st betterments assessed on Fred A. Gay and Mary E. Cunningham et al: recommending abatement of Boylston st assessment on Jas E. Cahill: recommending settlement of Boylston st betterments on Hahn estate by securing drainage rights for $150; recommending settlement of Hyde brook suits by $1800 drainage work.

These reports were adopted: From committee on Claims recommending leave to withdraw on petitions relative to Boylston st betterments from Jessie A. McMullen and Thos. Belger. Similar reports on Walter H. Adams and Arthur Muldoon were recommended. Reporting no action necessary on petition of Margaret J. Kerrivan relative to Boylston st betterment.

From committee on Public Franchises recommending leave to withdraw on license petitions of Adolph Treuthardt for Innholder, Edw Kataman for junk and John Purcell to move building from North st. Recommending granting petition of Nicholas Veduccio for wagon license.

RECESS.

From 8:50 to 9:19 for committee meetings, and upon reassembling these committee reports were received:

From committee on Public Works favorable to street watering on Camden road, Rowe and Warren sts, and to sewer construction in Dale st.

From committee on Finance recommending grant of $700 for certain city departments and approving recommendations of committee on Claims for settlement of Hyde brook cases and Hahn betterments and of the committee on Public Works for sewer construction in Dale st.

From committee on Public Franchises, etc favorable to granting N. E. Tel. and Tel Co certain conduit licenses, granting N. and W. Gas Light Co attachment on Commonwealth ave, and recommending revocation of wagon license of J. H. Carpenter.

Reports of the same committee recommending granting 1 carriage license to Frank Graham and 3 carriage and 1 wagon license to Robt Weir were adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

An order authorizing agreement with G. H. Walker and Co for preparation of an atlas of city was taken from the table and adopted.

ORDERS ADOPTED.

Abating Boylston at betterment on Jas. E. Cahill: prohibiting discharge of fireworks etc before 4 a. m. July 4th: permitting use of fireworks on July 4th and authorizing City clerk to license sale after June 20th: authorizing observance of June 17th: authorizing Francis Newhall to collect unpaid taxes heretofore committed to Seth A. Hamlett for collection: relieving collector of taxes from collecting Windsor road betterment assessed on W. S. Carr: assigning hearing June 26 at 7:45 p. m. on taking land for sewer in Dale st: revoking wagon license of J. H. Carpenter: authorizing Mayor to execute agreement with N. and W. Gas Light company to extend contract so as to require said company to expend $20,000 per year for five years in underground construction: and authorizing N. E. Tel. and Tel Co to lay conduits in Washington (Newton), Church, Oakland, Thornton, Walnut (Newtonville),

Board of Aldermen.

Norman road, Lakewood road, Waban Waban pk, Pearl, Watertown (Nonantum), Commonwealth av (Chestnut hill), Lewis terrace, Newtonville ave., Woodland road, Boylston, Laurel, Lake ave, Parker sts and Langley road.

An order assuming Boylston at betterments assessed on Fred A. Gay, Mary E. Cunningham et al, S. A. Piper and D. S. Farnham was discussed by Alderman Bishop, who said:

I object to the assumption of betterments on the Gay and Cunningham estates where the facts are identical. I agree with the committee in its recommendations regarding the Farnham and Piper estates. In the first two cases the releases given were the same and the city agreed to assume any betterments assessed upon the remainder of land of the grantor. In the Gay case the betterments in question were assessed on lots 150 feet away from Boylston st and separated from the land released by an accepted street. In the Cunningham case the betterment before us was assessed upon a lot on a side street separated from the remaining land by the water works aqueduct in which the grantor had no interest.

Alderman Ensign. The committee has spent some time on these Boylston street betterments and it is perfectly clear to a majority of the committee that the Gay and Cunningham lots are exempted from betterments by the terms of their release, and it is only fair and equitable for the city to assume the assessments in question.

The order was then adopted.

These orders were read twice and adopted: $150 for purchase of drainage rights from Hahn estate, Boylston st; authorizing Mayor to execute agreement with abutment on Hyde brook relative to pending suits for damages and for repairing and maintaining channel at expense of $1800; granting $300 for Fire Dept., $300 for Charity dept, and $100 for Law dept; and authorizing street watering on Camden road, Rowe and Warren sts.

An order granting the N. and W. Gas Light Company attachments on Commonwealth ave from Boston line to Homer st was laid on the table after this discussion.

Alderman Ellis. We ought not to pass such an important matter as this without being convinced that we do not increase the risk to our citizens from these overhead wires. It would seem as if this was a good place to begin underground construction.

Alderman Ensign. This is an important matter and I hope the vote will not be taken tonight.

Alderman Dennison. This subject has been before the Franchise committee for about nine months, and has received the most careful consideration. The company desire to connect their new transformer station on Homer st with the South Boston plant of the Edison company and to discontinue the present Watertown plant. The feed wires are to come from Boston by way of the boulevard and to complete the circuit by way of Walnut, Centre, Winchester and Needham sts. The location has only been made possible after every other route has received careful consideration. The committee were in favor of underground construction on the boulevard, but the present proposition of the company to agree to $20,000 per year of underground for five years with the Walnut st route to be constructed at once has convinced them that the petition should be granted. The boulevard route for overhead construction is as safe as any in the city. The avenue is 120 feet in width, with the poles in the centre. If a pole should fall it could not reach the sidewalk, and as only street railway wires are to be carried on these poles in addition the dangers of crossing are reduced to a minimum. The dangers from high tension wires are not confined to this avenue as the city has many wires now in use equally dangerous in case of accident.

Alderman Brown. I have grave doubts in not obliging this company to construct underground in Commonwealth avenue. The company is perfectly able to do it and have laid out a broad scheme to bring electricity into this city. They have built a transformer house and laid out plans and now bring in this scheme to get in here as cheaply as possible. You are dealing with the biggest and most independent concern in existence.

Alderman Palmer. We are all agreed that every wire in the city should be buried if possible, and the company's proposition to expend $20,000 a year in this work is a liberal one. The committee has brought in a scheme for overhead construction which is as safe as possible and the Inspector of Wires is perfectly satisfied with the plan. The matter has been thought of and considered for a long time and the company is now anxious for a settlement. The order should pass tonight that the work may be done quickly. The company can then dismantle its plant at Watertown and receive its power from So-

Boston with considerable economies in coal and labor saving devices.

Alderman Brown. The Edison company does not offer to give Newton the result of any of these economies in manufacture.

Alderman Bishop. It is admitted that this company is not in business for its health. The committee has discussed almost every possible line and is unanimous that the proper way is outlined in this order. These high tension wires are dangerous, but no more so than many other wires in daily use in this city. The proposition is a compromise and the underground work is to be done piece meal.

Alderman White. I have a horror of high tension wires and do not like the method of this company in building its station before obtaining permission for its location from this board. The committee however has done well in reaching this agreement.

Alderman Doherty. I was originally opposed to the passage of this order but the company has submitted a favorable proposition, and if there is nothing better action should be taken at once.

Alderman Ellis. It is for us to say on what terms this company shall be admitted to Newton, and we are not interested in its proposed economies. The present overhead wiring under this agreement will not be touched for at least two years, and I see no reason why they should not put their wires underground in Commonwealth avenue.

Alderman Cabot. The company is certainly able to place its wires underground.

The order was then tabled and the board at 10:22 p. m. adjourned.

WILDER-RIPLEY.

The wedding of Miss Abbie Ripley, the daughter of Mrs. Edward Clayton Ripley of Ashton park and Mr. Harold Bancroft Wilder of Homer street, Newton Centre, took place Wednesday afternoon at Trinity church of that place at four o'clock. Rev. Edward T. Sullivan, the rector officiated and the bridal couple were accompanied by Miss H. Ernestine Ripley of New York, a sister of the bride as maid of honor, and Mr. Lowell Wilder, a brother of the groom as best man. The ushers were Messrs Otis True and Frederic Hayward of Newton Highlands and Dr. Wm. J. Walton of Dorchester. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the home of Mr. S. Willoughby Wilder Jr 64 Homer street.

NAYLOR-MOORE.

The marriage of Dr. Leslie Herbert Naylor, and Miss Ethel Allegra, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Moore of Oakleigh road, took place last evening at the Immanuel Baptist church, the ceremony being performed by the pastor, Rev. Frank B. Matthews.

The bride was charmingly attired in white messaline silk, trimmed with chiffon and duchesse lace and wore the conventional tulle veil. In her hand was a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Edith H. Moore was the maid of honor, gowned in pink chiffon tulle, and wearing a white lace hat. Little Dorothy Moore of Colorado Springs, the niece of the bride, was the flower girl, and the ribbon children were Kenneth Ball and Corinne Naylor from East Orange, N. J. Mr. Fred H. Naylor of East Orange, N. J. was the best man, and the ushers were Messrs Clarence H. Moore, Leslie R. Moore, Dr. Henry C. Spencer, Edwin O. Childs Jr and John W. Allen of Newton and Dr. Leonard B. Wolfe of Boston.

The bride was escorted to the chancel on the arm of her father and preceded by the ushers, ribbon children, maid of honor and flower girl.

A reception for the immediate families was held after the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Naylor on October 3 and 10 at 10 Church street, Newton.

STEVENS-EAMES.

The wedding of Miss Ida Blanche Eames and Edwin Clifton Stevens took place last week Thursday evening at St. John's Episcopal church. The church was decorated in green and white, with a variety of field flowers intermixed with sunnys and running vine in an artistic combination, the creation of the Wellesley college friends of the bride. The bride was gowned in white messaline, garnished with old lace and carried a simple shower bouquet of valley lilies.

Her maid of honor, Harriet Otis Paul of Newton Centre, and the three bridesmaids, Mary Baldwin of Woburn, Nellie Coolidge of Newtonville and Mary Cannon of New Haven, Connecticut, wore all Wellesley friends of the bride and were dressed in costumes of white muslin, over satin.

The best man was Dr. Schofield of Newton Lower Falls, and the ushers were Lyman Hooker of South Framingham; Dr. Corbett of Newport, Rhode Island; Mr Lattimore of Ashland; Charles Stevens, brother of the groom, Elmer Eames of Newtonville and Charles H. Young of Upton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Richard T. Loring at 8 o'clock and was followed by a brief reception at the home of the bride at 63 Highland avenue. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. C. Stevens, mother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Eames, parents of the bride.

The old Allen School building has been moved from its former location and is now resting on its new foundation on Washington street near the corner of Chestnut street.

The old school building dates back to 1832, when it was constructed and occupied first under the name of Fuller Academy. The academy, after two years went out of existence, and about 1848 the state normal school, the first in America and the first for young women in the world, then established in Lexington, was removed to the academy building. The veteran teacher, the Rev. Cyrus Peirce, commonly known as "Father Pierce," was then the head of the institution. A union was formed between the state normal school and the school district of West Newton. This was the first yearly public school in Newton.

Soon after the removal of the school Nathaniel T. Allen became its principal.

About 1853 the normal school was removed to Framingham, but Mr. Allen remained, and in 1854 opened the English and Latin school, in connection with "Father Pierce." Mr. Allen assisted for many years by his brothers, George E. and James T., continued in charge of the school up to 1900, when the property changed hands and the old building was abandoned for a new school structure on Waltham street.

The old building was vacant for awhile but during the past year has been used by a local colored religious organization.

Real Estate.

Agreements have been signed in one of the largest transactions on the Newton boulevard for some years. Harry L. Burrage, president of the Eliot National Bank of Boston, buying from the estate of the late Edward B. Towne a tract of 280,000 square feet of land, with the buildings, having a frontage of about 1000 feet on the boulevard, corner Temple street, West Newton. It is assessed on a valuation of over $20,000, and is situated in the immediate vicinity of the Brae Burn Country Club. Mr. Burrage buys to add to his present home, when he will have one of the most attractive residences in Newton. The sale was made by John A. Potter of the Tremont building.

Alvord Bros. have sold the Stewart estate in Abundant, fronting on Auburn, Central and Grove streets, for W. H. White, to P. J. McAleer, who will occupy it for a residence, after extensive improvements. The estate consists of 34,600 square feet of land and house, the whole taxed for $8800.

Alvord Bros. have sold for M. F. Crampton, to M. A. Houghton, the estate No 4 Oakwood Terrace, corner of Morton St, Ashton Park, Newton Centre, consisting of a nearly new house, and about 9,200 square feet of land, the whole assessed for $5200.

Alvord Bros. have rented the Barnes house, 20 Monadnock Road, Newton Centre, to Mr. Eisman, of Eisman Bros. the wool merchants. They have also rented a room in the Union Block to Mrs. F. A. Bird, for a music room.

As we grow more busy I remembered a handsome boy I had known as a clerk in a New Hampshire postoffice, the son of a Methodist minister. I wrote to him, and he came to me, and proved just as competent as I had thought he would, and that means that he proved very competent indeed. When I changed my headquarters from Boston to New York Mr. Dodd desired this youth to stay with him. His parents were also unwilling to have him exposed to the temptations of so wicked a city as New York, and so he remained in Boston, becoming in time a partner with Mr. Dodd, finally his successor, and at present is conducting a successful advertising agency of his own. He was long the Secretary of the American Advertising Agents' Association and is widely known and liked by advertising men and publishers. He is not as handsome as he was when a boy. I am speaking of J. Wesley Barber, Advertising Agent, still of Boston. I would not assert that he knows more today than he did forty years ago for he was one of the most intelligent as well as one of the most attractive boys I ever knew. If he does not know any more now than he did then, everyone who is as well acquainted with him as I am will admit that he knows a whole lot—Geo. W. Rowell in Printers Ink.

We have no sympathy whatever in the disposition which has manifested itself on many occasions in our board of aldermen when public service corporation matters are under discussion.
This spirit is largely responsible for the strained relations existing between the street railway management and the municipality, and has resulted in one instance in a loss to the city of hundreds of thousands of dollars in valuation, when the machine and repair shops of the street railway company were located in Waltham instead of Newton. The same attitude was taken this week on the proposition to allow the Edison Company to enter the city with its feed wires from South Boston. A most liberal offer was received from the company in the matter of underground construction, but it was apparently ignored for the sole reason that it emanated from a corporation. Briefly, the situation in this city is this.
The local company supplying gas and electricity was purchased some time ago by interests representing the consolidations then going on in Boston, and has since been carried on in a tentative fashion until those combinations could be effected. The time has now arrived when the gas interests are to be absorbed by the Boston Consolidated Gas Company and the electric portion taken over by the Edison Co. of Boston. There are many advantages to be obtained by the citizens of Newton from the resulting economies of gas production at the Everett works and of electricity at the South Boston plant, under the regulation of the state commission.
There is certain to be a reduction in the price of both gas and electricity for power and light and when these two companies separate and enter into competition for business in this territory, the public cannot help being benefitted. Indeed, competition between gas and electricity at the present time for power purposes has given the consumer considerable reductions in price. There are therefore other matters to be considered in the proposition now pending besides that of requiring underground construction in Commonwealth ave. On that phase of the subject, it may be said that so far as the public is concerned, the greatest danger from these high tension wires, would come from the route through Walnut street and Newton Highlands, rather than over the boulevard. This is admitted by every one conversant with the situation and the company's proposition to bury that portion first is logical and commendable. To attach a further condition requiring an expenditure of over $30,000 additional, for work in Commonwealth ave which is admittedly of questionable value, is imposing a burden, not on the company, but on the municipality by depriving it of the relief to be afforded by burying wires in other parts of the city under the proposed agreement.

If this company is required to expend about $75,000 for burying its feed wires, it will have just so much less of its $100,000 offer to use in other districts. The Commonwealth avenue route is satisfactory to the Inspector of Wires for overhead construction, and the addition of three high tension wires to the existing trolley wires cannot add greatly to present risks.
The logical conclusion of the whole matter is to grant the overhead route, accept the $100,000 proposition and reach the point as rapidly as possible, where competition will result in better service and lower prices to consumers.

It is seldom that any community is called upon in the space of one month to mourn the passing away of two such useful public servants as the honored school master and the well-beloved pastor. Our tears have hardly ceased to fall for the death of Mr. Sawin, when the loss of Rev. Dr. Davis causes them to flow afresh.

While in one sense Dr. Davis belonged to his church, his kindness of spirit and warm-hearted sympathy were not bounded by denominational lines, and his gentle, Christian character, was known and appreciated by many.

This is neither the time nor place for his eulogy, and we but briefly express the deep and sincere regret of the community in which he lived and in which he was loved.

DEATH OF REV. DR. DAVIS.

REV. WILLIAM H. DAVIS, D.D.

Word was received late Wednesday evening that Rev. William Henry Davis, D. D. pastor of the Eliot church had passed away at Clifton Springs, N. Y., at 4:30 that afternoon.
For about a year Dr. Davis has been in failing health and has been in California with Mrs. Davis during the past winter, stopping on his way home at Clifton Springs, N. Y. The cause of death is obscure, resulting in an anæmic condition of the blood.
His condition has been quite serious for some time but it was hoped that he might be strong enough to return to his home on Park street.

William Henry Davis, D. D., was born in Chelsea, Vt., April 23, 1851, and was the son of Aaron and Mary (Wells) Davis.
He fitted for college at Kimball Union Academy, Meriden, N. H., and graduated from Dartmouth College in 1874, a classmate with Samuel L.
Powers, Samuel W. McCall, Judge John A. Aiken and other well-known men at the Massachusetts bar. He ### Baccalaureate Sermons.

The sermon before the members of the graduating class of Lowell Seminary, Auburndale, was delivered Sunday morning in the Congregational church of that village by Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell.

Aside from the seniors, who wore the customary black mortarboard caps and gowns, the service was attended by a congregation of several hundred pupils, members of the faculty and relatives and acquaintances.
"I am moved to speak to you," said Bishop Goodsell, "from the fortieth chapter of Isaiah, the 26th verse: 'He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might, he increaseth strength.'"

"The fortieth chapter of Isaiah," he declared, "is needed for the fullest, the longest and most impressive description of God to be found in the Old Testament. The man who wrote it lived in a generation which had heard of God as the God of Abraham, not as one who had seen Him in the person of His Son, and was able to describe Him in the words, 'God is love.'"

"Woman once was the twining vine that clung to the greater strength of the other sex. The present decade and the last have changed affairs. Womanhood now is not called on to perform merely the home-making and the motherhood that was all that was called for by your mothers and grandmothers. You are to be the companions of men, so you are called on to study the same books, perform the same tasks as your brothers. You are not to remain at home, shielded from troubles and worries. In many cases there is no man to shield you, as your ancestors had.

"The power of growing up to God in the higher and more delicate moralities of the soul are given to womanhood to sustain.
"Young ladies of the graduating class, what are these parents and teachers hoping and praying for? Perhaps some bookworm of a teacher is praying that you may have books in plenty in your life and that you may have the time to read them as they have revealed. Perhaps some worldly-wise mother is planning to introduce you to society and use the sensation you will cause. But all these lessons that you have been studying and these new thoughts that have come to you, are to make you more womanly and for the widening of your life and the lifting of it toward God.

"May you walk in the light," said Bishop Goodsell in conclusion, "as Christ is in the light and have fellowship with Him, and come to know His greatness and the promise that He will be with you always."

be due to the Plaintiff from the Defendant, on the eleventh day of February, A. D., 1905, as set forth in the Plaintiff's writ of that date.
And it appearing to the Court, by the suggestion of the Plaintiff, and on inspection of the officer's return on the Plaintiff's writ, that the Defendant is not an inhabitant of this Commonwealth, nor was resident therein at the time of the service of said writ, and that he has no last and usual place of abode, tenant, agent or attorney in this Commonwealth, known to the Plaintiff, or to said officer, and that no valid personal service of said writ has been made upon the Defendant.
It is ordered by the Court, here, that the Plaintiff give notice to the Defendant of the pendency of this action, and to appear before said Court, to be held at Newton, in said County, on Saturday, July first, next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to answer to the same, by causing an attested copy of this Order to be published in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper printed in Newton in said County, once a week, three times successively, the last publication to be at least seven days before the said Saturday, July first, next; and that said action be continued until notice shall be given to said Defendant, agreeably to this order.
FRANCIS W. SPRAGUE, 2d, Clerk.

MT. IDA SCHOOL.

The commencement exercises of the Mount Ida School for Girls took place Thursday evening, June first, in the gymnasium of the school, which was very attractively decorated with white and yellow, the class colors. A class of seven young ladies were presented diplomas by the principal, Professor George F. Jewett.

There were present a large audience of friends of the school from Newton and distant places. Professor Jewett in presenting the diplomas took occasion to state in a few words the purposes and aims of the school. There are in the school two courses. A student may prepare for any college in the United States or she may select such a general course as she may desire. With the exception of English the work is entirely elective. English is the only study that is required of all. Piano and voice, together with Art are counted toward a diploma.
There has been an increase of over 100 percent in the number of students this year over last year.

Dr. Charles F. Thwing, president of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, delivered the address, his subject being, "The Place of the Private School for Girls in American Life."

We have not space to give the address in full, as we should like to do, but give an outline of his remarks.

To interpret life is to interpret a condition diverse, rich, forceful, of manifold conditions, origin and purpose. It is to interpret a condition by one of ourselves, and to ourselves who are simply a part of what is to be interpreted. The eye never sees itself, but the eye sees all. Because we are a part of American life ourselves it is difficult to interpret that life.

But to me there are three or four elements in American life that are especially significant and possibly interpretative of fundamental elements and conditions.

1. To me, American life stands in need of a more discriminating love, of a more discriminating love of life itself, its institutions, its past, its future. There is no trouble in our having a large patriotic love for America. Nothing is so cheap as blood. Nothing is so cheap as blood when the country needs defense. Yet there is need of love that judges, that discriminates. There is a humanity that is larger than America. To me one of the largest needs of modern life is a love that discriminates the various worths and advantages, strengths and weaknesses of our American character.

2. With this need I am inclined to link the need of a better understanding of proportions, a keener appreciation of values, a more just sense of what is and of what is not worth while, a seeking to adjust a proper perspective. We are inclined to think too much of the times. We live in the hour, not in the day; we live in the month, not in the year; we live in the year, not in the decade. We lack perspective. There have been great centuries, just as great, possibly more critical for human affairs than the nineteenth, and those we are in our own time to seek to understand and appreciate.

3. There is a similar lack I think, of perspective in regard to place. Provincialism is a common fault with every part of our vast Commonwealth.
It seems to be almost instinctive to humanity to regard the immediate place as the only part of the universe.
We need as large people to know that there is a Rome, that there is a London, and a St. Petersburg, and a Constantinople, more charming in many ways and more full of interest than any part of the America.

4. If further adjustment exists in regard to perspective of events. Of course events occur in time and place, but events themselves of our own time we are inclined to think are especially significant. Think of the great events that have determined history. Think of the great battles that have turned back the waves of barbarism and have helped to make civilization. We need simply to adjust perspective, the view of the present to the large vision of events of the long, long ago.

And the same truth, I think, holds in respect to personalities. We have a great man in the chair at Washington, but we have had great men in that chair before. We have great men in public life today, but we have had great men in public life before. And great men in American life are needed of a better adjustment of values of time, events, place, personalities.

4. We stand also in need of a clearer understanding and a more just appreciation of the fact that the improvement of the community does not depend upon law, but upon character.
For some reason or other the American people have come to believe in the beneficent quality of laws. We should put ourselves to work to correct evils, to promote good and cease to trust the beneficent quality of law itself.

5. There is a fourth need that is more urgent possibly than any other: it is the need of discrimination between what is called life and living—the need of the elevation of the nonmaterial, of the purely intellectual, of the spiritual part of our being. Living in America is splendid, magnificent, noble. I know that we say that this is a spiritual age, and we point to our large gifts to education.
The increment is indeed large. But the increment is not so large as is the increase in the material and materialistic forces that constitute modern living. And therefore I say that there ought to be an increase in, an emphasis greater placed upon, the nonmaterial, upon the spiritual side.
It requires no emphasis to say in this presence to say that things unseen are eternal, that the things that minister to the heart of man are the things that last and are the highest, that thought and truth and duty and love are more than merchandise or dollars.

Now, if what I have said seems to you at all true, if it seems to you that our love for our country should be more discriminating, that we should possess a clearer vision of the proportion of values, that we should be assured that it is not law but character that has force, that we should be satisfied that the need of ourselves is the need of a life more intellectual and more spiritual—that is the relation of the private school for girls to this American life of ours which has these characteristics and qualities?
A school of any sort has a great work to do for the betterment of the world.
No school can be too fine for the training of our boys and girls. But in this relation there is, I think, a unique place occupied by the private school for girls. The public school is ordained to train all; the private school is ordained to train each. The private school is ordained to train individuals, an elect and select number, and to give to them a training finer, more formative, more inspiring and more full of aspiration than can be given under ordinary conditions in the schools supported by the people.
The private school is to train the individual, to train you.

The private school is to care with special carefulness for the health of every student. You graduates do not know the value of health.

The private school, working for the individual, is also concerned especially with the development of the individuality of the individual. As every leaf on the tree differs from every other although having common characteristics, so also each of us is individual. In the public schools no such development is possible. It would not be just to all the other individuals committed to the training of a single teacher. But for you, a single person, private school is ordained.
All parts of your character are to come forth in the finest blooming, in the largest, loveliest, noblest development of yourselves. You are God's child. As God's child, in your moral nature as well as intellectual, you are to be the largest and the finest.

The private school makes use of three or four conditions or forces in promoting this largest development of you as a single soul. One of these is beauty and fitness of environment.
This very spot on this beautiful hilltop illustrates the beauty of environment as a means to your development.
This spot is among the fairest spots that the stars look down upon.

The private school, furthermore, is able to use as a public school cannot.
Man is religious. The relation that you hold to your God is of primary importance. It should be as broad as your own being and as lasting as the being of God himself. The teacher who fails to use religion in this way fails to use the most powerful factor for the development of wisdom and goodness.

Also, my friends, the private school such as this is able to use that richest force, the teacher himself. The teacher is of primary significance. A single word spoken by the teacher may form or reform that student's life more than many a textbook and hours of formal instruction. Teachers must always give the finest and best to their pupils. I know that a teacher in the public school is a mighty force but when to a single teacher is committed forty or more girls, there can not be that individuality or care, that vital touch of life to life that is made when we can sing the "song of seven."

And so I say that the private school does the very most that any force can do to make your futures great without bigness; to make the future intellectual without coldness or remoteness; to make your lives tender and sympathetic without weakness; to make your characters just, well proportioned, without being commonplace.

On all these principles the Mount Ida School for Girls is firmly established. There is for this school a great and useful future.

DEATH OF GUY LAMKIN.

Guy Lamkin, of the Boston shoe firm of Lamkin and Foster, died Friday at his home at 109 Langley road, Newton Centre, after a severe week-long illness. Mr. Lamkin was born in Newbury, Vt., in 1825, and after receiving his education, came to Boston and engaged in the shoe business, in which he met with great success.

He first established himself in the retail business on Court street and later on the corner of Pemberton square. About twenty-five years ago he became one of the partners in the shoe manufacturing firm of Baldwin and Lamkin, and a large factory for the manufacture of women's shoes was opened at Milford, Ct.

In 1891, on the death of his brother, who was then of the firm of Lamkin and Foster, Mr. Lamkin became a member of that firm, and continued with it up to the time of his death.
The old firm of Baldwin and Lamkin was discontinued five or six years ago.

Mr. Lamkin had made his home in Newton Centre for 20 years, and was an active member of the First Baptist Church in Commonwealth avenue, Boston, and of the Vermont Association.

He leaves a widow and two daughters.

Funeral services were held at his late residence 109 Langley road, Newton Centre, Tuesday, June 6th. The services were conducted by the Rev.
Dr. Francis H. Rowley, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Boston, who was assisted by Rev. Dr. Cephas B.
Crane, who was the former pastor of the First Baptist Church. The services were attended by a large number of Mr. Lamkin's friends and business associates. The burial was at Forest Hills Cemetery.

Allen School Graduation.

The assembly room in the school building was taxed to its utmost capacity by the friends and pupils who attended the graduation exercises on the morning of June second. Mr.
John H. Satterton of Boston gave a series of finely rendered organ selections from Mendelssohn, Handel and Verdi, concluding the program with Scotts' "March in G." The series of songs by Mr. George F.

Woods, soloist at the South Congregational church, Boston, were received with so much enthusiasm that he kindly responded to several en-cores. Rev. E. F. Snell of West Newton delivered the prayer.

The address was made by Rev.
Charles F. Thwing, President of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, who took for his theme the training of youth for the future, laying especial stress on the necessity of clear thinking, and urging the pupils to cultivate ability to do, devotion to duty and the broadening of human sympathy. He emphasized the lesson of nobility in self forgetfulness taught by the Shaw Memorial.
The wit with which he illustrated many points in the address made it a most entertaining one to those present.

When Dr. Thwing ceased speaking Robert Davy Eaglesfield representing the senior class in a few well chosen words presented the school with two handsome carbon photographs: "Training of Athenian Youth" and "The Cathedral of Armies." Willard Lewis Ruhe, President of the class, received the diplomas from Headmaster A. E. Bailey, who then presented prizes to the following pupils, Merton Ayer for best note book on Ancient Literature, Harold Hyde for best note book on Physics, Malcolm Field for best note book on English Literature, Carlton Ruhe for excellence in manual training, Willard Ruhe for excellence in mechanical drawing, Jose Sandoval for best record in Lower School, William Dial for best record in Upper School. Merrill Guild received honorable mention for general excellence in the Lower School. The graduation class consisted of Harley Tuttle Caverly, Rutland, Vt.; Chester Winthrop Davis, Newton Centre; William Henry Dial, Lockland, O.; Robert Davy Eaglesfield, Indianapolis, Ind.; Harry Levi Tower, Newton; Merritt Field Hubbard, Taunton; Wendell Rice King, Mick-Newton Centre; Clement Lowell Phippen, Newton; Willard Lewis Ruhe, West Newton.

Street Railway Notes

The following decision of the Supreme Court bears so directly on the street lighting of Boylston street by the Boston and Worcester Street Railway Co. that it is printed in full:

Bill in equity by the selectmen of Wellesley to compel a compliance with certain orders of the plaintiffs.
In the Supreme Judicial Court. Justice, J. reserved the case for the full court.

Victor J. Loring and C. S. Quinn for plaintiffs.
Guy W. Cox for defendant.

LORING, J.—With two exceptions all the questions raised in this case have been disposed of by a stipulation entered into between the parties since the argument. The two questions not so disposed of relate to the validity of two restrictions contained in the location of the defendant corporation's railway in the town of Wellesley, over Worcester Street, otherwise known as the Boston and Worcester Turnpike in said town, to wit, (1) so much of the fifth as requires the defendant to light said street to the extent there prescribed, and the fifteenth, which regulates fares in Wellesley, and between the junction of the defendant's tracks with those of the Boston Elevated Railway in Brookline to any point in Wellesley, and from any point in Wellesley to the junction of the defendant's tracks with those of Natick and Cohasset Street Railway tracks in Natick.

On the question of fares the case of Keefe v. Lexington and Boston Street Railway, 185 Mass. 183, is decisive.
The location there in question was governed by the same provisions of law as those which govern the location here in question. The only difference is that the acts in force when the location in Keefe v. Lexington and Boston Street Railway was granted had been re-enacted in the Revised Laws when the location here in question was granted. We find nothing in the argument attacking the decision made in that case which requires discussion. This brings us to the question of lights. Apart from the fact that by the last clause of St.
1898, c. 13, restrictions in locations made before that act are put on the same footing as restriction under the act, Dunbar v. Old Colony Street Railway, p. ante, the restriction as to lights in the case at bar is of the same character as that as to watering in Newcomb v. Norfolk Western Street Railway just cited, and that as to repairs in Dunbar v. Old Colony Street Railway, p. ante. Electric cars in a reserved space ordinarily are run at a such rate of speed that it might well be thought that a grant of the right to run them makes it necessary to have one hundred lights of 25 candle power each, in the distance of five miles. It is not necessary to consider whether the fact that such lights might be thought necessary for the accommodation of people wishing to take the defendant's cars could be considered by the selectmen in making this requirement.

The defendant has argued that it is forbidden to use its electricity for lighting purposes by R. L. cc. 121, 122, calling special attention to s. 24 and 26 of c. 121, and s. 1 of c. 122.
But we are of opinion that it is not forbidden to use electricity for lighting as an incident to its business; it may use it to light its cars, and in our opinion it may as properly use it to light the streets through which its cars run as to light its cars while running through those streets.

Decree accordingly.

The 50th anniversary of the organization of Grace Church will be celebrated this fall. Among the speakers are Bishop Vinton of Western Massachusetts, Bishop Lawrence of this diocese and Dr. Steenstra of the Theological School Cambridge. The first service will be on Sunday, Sept. 24th. Other services will be Sept 27th and Oct. 1st. The social gathering will be on the night of Sept 27th. It will be a week of interesting events.

Show places in Newton are really quite numerous, but there is no spot that excels in beauty these early summer days, Farlow Park with its surrounding especially with Grace church and its well kept grounds and the adjoining property. Those who love fine views should try to see this beautiful spot as it is just now before the growth of vegetation shuts out some of its features.

VERMONT FOR VACATIONS.
MANY DELIGHTFUL RESTING PLACES
AMONG THE GREEN HILLS.

Summer time is here and the vacation question is uppermost in the minds of all who believe in the yearly respite from the cares of business and homekeeping. Persons who are wise will consider the claims of all the various regions which invite the summer visitor and in so doing they cannot fail to become aware of the fact that Vermont offers unequalled inducements to those who love the country and the outdoors life which is becoming so popular. The Central Vermont railway has issued this year a beautifully illustrated handbook of the delightful summer country reached by the Green Mountains route. This is something that every family should see before making any definite plans for the summer. It describes the charms of the villages nestling among the green hills, the famous Winooski valley with its comfortable farms, Lake Champlain's picturesque islands and shores and the resorts in the Green mountains where pure air and magnificent views are yearly attracting thousands from the close and crowded cities. This book is sent for six cents in stamps inclosed to T. H. Hanley, Central Vermont railway, 360 Washington St., Boston.

At the Theatres

Tremont Theatre—Henry W. Savage's "Prince of Pilsen" company will start on its third and last week but one at the Tremont Theatre next Monday, celebrating the occasion of the 200th performance of this favorite attraction in Boston by presenting each lady present with a beautiful souvenir etching. The offering of this splendid musical comedy with its big cast, beautiful scenes and costumes, large, handsome chorus, screamingly funny scenes and situations and delightful musical numbers, at summer prices, has proved a decidedly wise move on the part of Manager Savage. The house has been crowded at every performance, and judging from the enthusiasm of the big audiences, one might wonder if the "Dear Old Prince" will ever grow old. All of the many musical hits are demanded over and over again, and the funny scenes and situations are received with screams of laughter and applause.

Keith's Theatre—The annual summer engagement of the Fadette Woman's orchestra which was begun at Keith's last week drew large and enthusiastic audiences of ardent music lovers from all over New England. There has been some changes made in the personnel of the orchestra by Director Nichols and is now said to be by lovers of popular music everywhere "the best ever." The concert will continue at approximately 1:45 and 7:30 p. m., so that those who enjoy the music may do so while the patrons of vaudeville may come later.

For the week of June 12, the Fadettes will make an entire change of selections. Included in the vaudeville bill will be four Lukess, who have just returned from Europe, in the greatest "casting" act ever seen in the varieties; the Avolos, a quartet of expert xylophone players; Susie Fisher, a talented baritone vocalist; Louis Wesley, monologue comedian; Mlle. Chester and her beautiful statue dog; Gilday and Fox, in a comedy sketch and Norman D. Stell, a pleasing soprano. An entire new list of motion pictures will be shown in the biograph.

Communication.
After witnessing the splendid sight presented by the Newton High School Battalion on parade Tuesday, May 30th, I could not help but feel that our School Committee were making a great mistake in disbanding this organization arbitrarily and without apparently giving it more careful consideration.

The excuses which have been given for this action were two: first, that the drill was developing one sided boys; second, that it was impossible to maintain military discipline among the boys.

As to the first excuse, it is absolutely too silly to be entertained by a sensible body like our School Committee. The drill lasts about thirty minutes on two days out of each week and I doubt if our School Committee could have picked out a single one sided boy in the whole battalion on Decoration Day, for the boys carried their guns at left shoulder as often as they did at right. Perhaps our School Committee do not know that such an order as "Left Shoulder" belongs in the Manual of Arms.

As to the second complaint, I am sure that had this matter been carefully considered, as suggested above the School Committee would have hesitated a long time, and would have been very reluctant about advertising the lack of ability to maintain discipline among the boys of our High School Battalion. That such a condition does exist there seems to be plenty of reason to believe, and such a condition existing, leaves someone open to severe criticism. That the Battalion could be carried on and first class military discipline be maintained, no one can question for a minute.

Now, the thing to be done is to find the cause of the existing condition and remove it. It is the moral and physical influence of this drill which our boys need, and the strict military discipline will be more helpful to them than any gymnasium could ever be. I feel that public sentiment should be aroused in this matter, and that the action of the Board should be reconsidered.

To the Editor of the Graphic.
Will you kindly allow the use of your columns to speak of the Newton High School concert which was given in the Assembly Hall June 2.

This annual concert of our young friends is coming to be a musical event of the first importance for Newton.

This year we have more than ever reason to be proud of the results achieved. They will bear comparison with the work of any singers of their age and experience, anywhere, I believe.

Mr. Walton who drills and conducts this chorus as a labor of love deserves much at the hands of Newton people. It was pleasant to see that some of his friends remembered him with a handsome bouquet.

While it will be impossible to comment upon all the details of the performance, some things were of especial excellence and among these may be mentioned Mr. McEllan's playing of Kohlers "Schlummerte Stille Garten" for which he was recalled and played a "Gracie Song." Miss Sanderson's singing met with great favor, and she responded with "Don't be cross" by Veller. Mr. Bullens undertook a song that would try the mettle of the greatest bass singers. He has a promising voice.

Mr. Robinson's beautiful voice was heard to great advantage in the "Slave Song," which he had to repeat, and later in the solo part of "The Old New England."

Miss Leonard's accomplished playing of the piano was greatly appreciated, as an encore number she played McDowell's "Shadow Dance." The audience was wildly enthusiastic over the way young Russell played the difficult "Poet and Peasant" overture on the xylophone. He responded with "A Bit of Blarney." It is difficult to conceive of this instrument's being better played than he does it.

Best of all, however, to the writer's thinking was the singing of the chorus. It sang throughout the concert in almost perfect time and tune, and with a splendid, robust quality of tone, fit to stir the pulses of the most blasé concert goer. Rhenbergers "Night Song" that finest of part songs, had to be repeated. After "Old New England" the chorus gave as an encore piece the "Pilgrim Chorus" from Tannhauser, which they sang wonderfully.

The hall was crowded with the best people in Newton, some of whom would be glad to hear such a concert oftener than once a year, and would gladly pay for the privilege.

LETTER TO HENRY RAILY.
NEWTON CENTRE.

Dear Sir: A painter complained that our cans are too full; unhandy; spill.

It's a way we have: 'tis handier not to be full; but we have a weakness for full-measure. Our gallon contains eight pints the usual "gallon" is seven.

We'll think it over again; but we like a full can. How much short would you like a barrel? Seven gallons would be the proportion.

Short-measure suggests that the artist is probably not in the cheapest ingredient.

Guess we'll stick to four quarts to a gallon, and fifty gallons a barrel.

The name to go by is Devco Lead and Zinc.

F. W. Devco & Co.

ience was wildly enthusiastic over the way young Russell played the difficult "Poet and Peasant" overture on the xylophone. He responded with "A Bit of Blarney." It is difficult to conceive of this instrument's being better played than he does it.

Best of all, however, to the writer's thinking was the singing of the chorus. It sang throughout the concert in almost perfect time and tune, and with a splendid, robust quality of tone, fit to stir the pulses of the most blasé concert goer. Rhenbergers "Night Song" that finest of part songs, had to be repeated. After "Old New England" the chorus gave as an encore piece the "Pilgrim Chorus" from Tannhauser, which they sang wonderfully.

The hall was crowded with the best people in Newton, some of whom would be glad to hear such a concert oftener than once a year, and would gladly pay for the privilege.

LETTER TO HENRY RAILY.
NEWTON CENTRE.

Dear Sir: A painter complained that our cans are too full; unhandy; spill.

It's a way we have: 'tis handier not to be full; but we have a weakness for full-measure. Our gallon contains eight pints the usual "gallon" is seven.

We'll think it over again; but we like a full can. How much short would you like a barrel? Seven gallons would be the proportion.

Short-measure suggests that the artist is probably not in the cheapest ingredient.

Guess we'll stick to four quarts to a gallon, and fifty gallons a barrel.

The name to go by is Devco Lead and Zinc.

City of Newton.

MASSACHUSETTS PIPE LINE GAS CO.
Boston, June 5th, 1905.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.
To the Board of Aldermen of the City of Newton:

Respectfully represents the Massachusetts Gas Company, incorporated by Statute 1896, Chapter 537, of said Commonwealth, that it desires the right to construct, maintain and operate its pipe line and highways of the City of Newton as follows:

Beginning at the boundary line between the Town of Watertown and said City of Newton, in California Street, thence Westwardly in said California Street to Bridge Street, a distance of 3000 feet; thence Northerly in said Bridge Street 100 feet to the boundary line between the said City of Newton and the Town of Watertown, all as shown on the set of two plans (No. 10349) entitled, "Massachusetts Pipe Line Gas Company Plans showing proposed location of Sixteen Inch Gas Pipe in California Street and Bridge Street from Watertown line to Watertown line, dated June 10, 1905, and signed by J. A. Gould, Chief Engineer," which plans are herewith filed.

The Massachusetts Pipe Line Gas Company further represents that by Chapter 417 of the Acts of 1903 it is authorized to assign, transfer and convey all its property, locations, rights, licenses, powers, privileges and franchises to the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, a corporation incorporated by said Act.

WHEREFORE, your petitioner prays that the said Board of Aldermen will grant to it the above desired location, location, rights, licenses, powers, privileges and franchises in said streets as said Board shall deem proper, and in case your petitioner shall, prior to the granting of such locations, have assigned, transferred and conveyed all its property, locations, rights, licenses, powers, privileges and franchises to the Boston Consolidated Gas Company in accordance with said Chapter 417 of the Acts of 1903, it prays that said Board will grant the above desired locations, or such other locations in said streets as the Board shall deem proper, to said Boston Consolidated Gas Company.

MASS. PIPE LINE GAS COMPANY,
By J. L. Richards, President.

Newton:

The Boston Consolidated Gas Company, a corporation incorporated by Chapter 417 of the Acts of 1903, joins in the foregoing petition of the Massachusetts Pipe Line Gas Company, and respectfully prays that if prior to the granting of the foregoing petition, it shall have acquired the property, locations, rights, licenses, powers, privileges and franchises of the Massachusetts Pipe Line Gas Company in accordance with —Mr. Alfred I. Wagstaff for many years a resident of this city died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Brewer on Arlington street, on Tuesday at the age of seventy years. He was born in London, England, but has lived about his entire life in this country, engaged in business as a managing chemist at Chelsea.

He is survived by two sisters. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2, Rev. A. L. Hudson officiating, and the interment was at Woodlawn cemetery.

—There was an attendance of about 200 at the fourth annual picnic of Channing parish and Sunday school held Saturday at Lexington Park. In the morning two base ball games were played, one by scrub teams and the other by the boys. In the latter game Charles Dearborn's team defeated Bigelow Emerson's by a score of 19 to 10. Basket lunch was served at noon and the afternoon was spent with scratch racing contest and dancing in the pavilion, music being provided by a hurdy gurdy. The success of the affair was largely due to the efforts of the committee, Mr. Edward Moll chairman.

Sawin Memorial Fund.

Considerable headway has been made by an energetic committee with Mayor Weed as chairman and Mr. J.
E. Hills as treasurer toward the collection of a fund for a memorial to the late Master Sawin of the Bigelow school. For 34 years Mr. Sawin was master of this school and his record of devotion to duty has rarely been equalled. Citizens of Wards 1 and 7 and particularly those whose children have been under his teaching should respond readily to this appeal.

For Rev. Dr. Davis at Eliot Church Services.

A Great Demonstration of His Hold on the Community.

Eliot church was crowded to the doors on Sunday afternoon with members of the church, representative citizens, delegations from the American Board, Dartmouth College, Vermont Association, the Newton Ministers Union and other organizations of which the late Rev. William H. Davis D. D., pastor of the church was a member.

The pulpit was literally banked with floral tributes among them being an anchor of pink roses and white carnations from the North Evangelical Church; set piece of white roses from Washington Street Church, Beverly; wreath of orchids and asparagus fern from the Vermont Association; crescent of white roses and palms from the officers of the Prudential Committee of the American Board; wreath of sweet peas from the Junior Society; wreath white carnations from the Senior Christian Endeavor Society; wreath of pansies and sweet peas from the teachers of primary department; wreath of ivy which was placed in front of the pulpit, from the Sunday school and a wreath of white roses placed on Dr. Davis' chair from the parish committee and many others from members of the church, congregation and friends testifying as only these emblems can the love and esteem in which he was held.

The vast audience rose in respect when the casket, covered with flowers and borne by members of the Young Men's club, Messrs A. S. Partridge, A. F. Whittemore, W. C. Whitney, E. O. Childs, Jr., C. L. Ellison and W. T. Coppins appeared in the church. It was preceded down the aisle by the acting pastor, Rev. F. S. Hatch, Rev. DeWitt Clark of Salem, President W. J. Tucker of Dartmouth college and Rev. Dr. J. L. Barton, secretary of the American Board, and followed by the honorary pall bearers, Messrs Chas. H. Buswell, Joshua W. Davis, Thos. Weston, Herbert A. Wilder, Frank W. Stearns, H. E. Barker, Chas. A. Haskell and Andrew B. Cobb.

The services included prayer by Rev. Mr. Hatch, singing "Lead, Kindly Light" by the church quartet, reading of scriptures by Rev. Mr. Hatch, address by President Tucker, singing "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" by the congregation, address by Rev. Dr. Barton, prayer by Rev. Mr. Clarke, singing "Nearer My God To Thee" by the quartet, singing "For All The Saints" by congregation and benediction by Rev. Mr. Hatch. The organist played Chopin's funeral march while the audience was slowly dispersing.

The addresses were as follows:

Rev. Mr. Hatch: "The friends gathered upon this platform, who unite with you in this service of love, have been invited because of their long and intimate relations with the pastor of this church. When Mr. Davis, thirty years ago, was a student in New York, Dr. Tucker was his pastor and friend. Beginning his first pastorate in Beverly, twenty-eight years ago, Dr. Clark was his nearest neighbor and has been to this hour his affectionate friend. In the intimate association of a common work, Dr. Barton has been for many years both companion and friend. We gladly welcome their tributes of friendship and their fellowship with us in our grief. But while we recognize the extent and variety of Dr. Davis' affections and activities, we cannot forget that he was, first of all, the pastor of Eliot Church, the minister of this people. Therefore, next to his own flesh and blood, the church is his chief mourner. And this today this household of faith, like his immediate kindred, can only listen while others speak, later at some suitable time Eliot Church will offer appropriate memorial to her beloved minister. Today our hearts are filled with sorrow, but they are not plunged in gloom, for he taught his flock to look forward, to behold the bow upon the cloud, to believe in God, to trust the words of Jesus concerning his saints. "Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am that they may behold my glory. The lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd and shall guide them unto fountains of the waters of life." Praise God the shepherd is so sweet; Praise God the country is so fair; We would not hold thee from his feet, We can but haste to meet thee there.

President Tucker:

It is impossible for those of us who have been asked to say a brief word through our association with Dr. Davis in work, to hold with any distingness to this thought, for all the lines of work run back very definitely and very swiftly toward the man himself. Whatever we may think today of his finished work, so generous and so fruitful, as has been suggested, our hearts are filled with a great thankfulness and a great joy that God has given such a great hearted man to know and to love. In speaking, as I am asked to speak, a word in his relation to his college, it should be said of him at once that whether as student or as representing the college in ways of general service, or as serving the college directly upon its Board of Trustees, he was from beginning to end one man and the same man. I asked a friend yesterday what were the characteristics of Dr. Davis when in college, "Precisely the same," he replied, "as they were always afterward." I never knew a man in whom the personal element was so nearly constant.

Dr. Davis graduated from Dartmouth in the class of 1874. Among his classmates, with whose names you may be familiar, through their public service in your state were your own townsman Mr. Powers, Mr. McCall of Winchester, and Chief Justice Aiken of the Superior Court. I refer to this personal environment, to these names illustrative of that fact, because Dr. Davis was so responsive to his surroundings and the brief word which I speak at this time will be an illustration of the fact which is most significant and very precious to me, that the great lesson coming out of his life is that of the art of living well among men. Even in a palace of the old Roman, saint life may be well led; even in a college with its risks of immaturity, heightened by the risks of contagion; even in a city where the social atmosphere at times grows heavy; even in the world of affairs, life may be well led and our brother from first to last, wherever he was, led life well.

As I look upon his finished life two or three things come to me with very great impression. He was a man of moral certainty, not a moral sensitivity alone that might have given him fear and shirking, but a man of moral certainty and therefore a man of courage and a man of freedom. He had the quick habit as I knew him of discrimination; he knew what to avoid; he knew what risks could not be taken; he knew upon what he might venture. He dared to go where other men might not dare to go. He knew men in the intimacy of college life and of after life with perfect freedom, knowing that in many respects he had more to receive than to give and in other respects more to give than to receive. But so great was the freedom of his moral life rounded in certainty that everywhere he took the joy and the gladness of his courage and of his freedom.

I think no one ever asked any questions as to his conduct or behavior. He could have done a great many things which others could not have done without serious questioning, but he was so clear and so firm and so simple and so strong in his loyalty to his Master, he had all the freedom of that great and that glorious service. There was no restraint about him in his words or in his action from the first to last, because he was thoroughly, from first to last, a free man in Christ Jesus.

I was impressed continually with the thought of the very great intellectual sympathy of our brother. It was manifest in his breadth of interests and in his breadth of view. I never asked to what party he belonged in his thought, no one ever cared for that; everyone knew that his thought was clear, honest and broad, with a great loyalty to his convictions. He was wide in his thinking, and his horizon lifted as the years went on. He had the rare characteristic of sympathy with his peers. Many men can pity, some men can show charity, but sympathy with those with whom one is in competition, sympathy with one whose motives he knows, sympathy with one who may cross the path of his ambition; that was characteristic of Dr. Davis in all his interests and in all his relations. He illustrated finely that great thought of St. Peter, "To godliness, brotherly kindness and to brotherly kindness, charity. So many of us miss, do we not, that intervening part? But this church and all the work of our brother is illustrative of the fact that to him, there was nothing so great or significant as brotherly kindness, quick-hearted, intellectual sympathy with other men in their thinking and with other men in their work. And I was impressed, as all of you have been impressed, with the fact that he illustrated so greatly the joy of service. He never wrought under the eye of his taskmaster; his heart leaped at the very command of duty. In whatever service he engaged and his services were so great they cannot be enumerated, in whatever service he engaged, all his heart was in his work from first to last.

It was a joy to me to know that he died in the spirit of expectation, thinking to the very last that he had yet other work to do and other plans to carry out, other service to render to men and to his God. The happiness of his work too, made its impression, its impression upon young men who said "It is better to live a life of such happiness as he has shown, than to live other lives with the vexations and uncertainties of fortune. So true, so simple, so single-minded, so unaffected, so generous, so brotherly, so joyous was our friend, that as we are gathered in this service of remembrance it is not a funeral service. The note of joy which was struck at the beginning is the note of joy and gratitude which fills our hearts. I do not now what the future holds for service, I do not now whether God has demands for heroic souls in heaven or not; I do not now what demands there are there for charity, but I do know, else all that we know is false, that every great brotherly hearted man who goes up into that fellowship must have a welcome. Our brother has found his place, where they go out no more forever; he will walk in generous sympathy, in glad converse, taking his place by right of his loyalty to Christ, among the saints of God.

It would be impossible for one who had lived very close to Dr. Davis to think at this time, under the shadow of the great sorrow which has come, calmly and dispassionately. It is impossible for one to trust himself to speak upon that close personal relation which always grew up between Dr. Davis and those with whom he dealt. You have known him and known him as a loving pastor and as a great hearted, loving, loyal friend, an inspirer of men, one who always called out the best that was in one. I wish to speak just briefly of the manner in which this life, so full of richness, reached out beyond this church and this commonwealth and touched the whole world.

In 1896, when Dr. Davis came to this church as its pastor, he was elected a member of the Prudential Committee of the American Board; that election he gladly accepted, and thus came into close touch at once with the great missionary body of this Board and the army of native workers and the great movement that is encircling the world for its moral elevation and for its spiritual life, and it seemed from the first as if the nature of our brother was wonderfully adapted for this great and broad work. He came with his sympathies large; he came with his love boundless and he at once found scope for his sympathy and his love in this work of the American Board. I have seldom seen one throw himself so fully and so lovingly and so sympathetically into his work as did our brother, Dr. Davis. At once upon his election to the Prudential Committee, he was appointed a member of the Home Department Committee and of the special committee upon Japan.

The other member of that committee upon Japan was Mr. Ellison, whom we lament today; he was chairman and Dr. Davis, his pastor, was the second upon that committee. As the one in correspondence with the Japan mission, I was thrown very closely with these men, because there at once arose great questions regarding the administration of missions in the Japanese Empire. I was amazed that our brother, whose heart was so warm with sympathy, had a head so cool in judgment. It was a marvellous combination, that one who had sympathy for everyone in distress and love for everyone in sorrow, should at the same time have such calm judicial judgment when it came to questions of decision as to methods of operation. And I assure you that all who came in contact with our brother in those earlier days of his experience on the Prudential Committee, came, not only to love him, but to honor his judgment. Last Wednesday morning he was a member of six of the sub-committees of the Prudential Committee, of three of those committees he was chairman. Many a time in our discussions when the question has arisen as to the appointment of a special committee for an unusually difficult task, the minds of everyone have almost invariably turned to Dr. Davis with the remark, "He would be a good man upon that committee." He was a good man upon every committee anywhere for any question, at any time, and he has demonstrated this by his work upon this Board.

A little over three years ago the Prudential Committee of the American Board decided to send a deputation to Ceylon and India to look over the work of the Board and report upon it, and they decided that all things considered, one of the best if not the best man to represent this committee, for this important work, was Dr. Davis and the proposition was laid before him. I can recall now how his whole nature bounded and he said, "How I should love to do that work." His physicians decided that his reserve strength was not sufficient to allow him to undertake these arduous duties under the hostile climate of India and Ceylon and their judgment was adverse. I recall now as vividly as though it was but this morning, in my last conversation with Dr. Davis upon this subject, "Well, I have to give it up," although he had been reading and planning for this work for weeks, "I shall have to give it up. The doctors say it will not do for me to undertake it," and then he dropped his head a moment and he said, "If I had no one dependent upon me I would go. Wouldn't it be glorious if I could be called home from the mission field and lie there with those heroes of the gospel until the resurrection morn." But he gave it up, but we felt we had one behind who loved the work and who followed it with his prayers.

In India, in talking with one of our leading missionaries in regard to the Prudential Committee, almost none of whom he personally knew, he said, "I know nothing about the Prudential Committee, but I do know Dr. Davis, and if the Prudential Committee are like him you have a royal company of men." Later on a matter of much importance for that mission was settled by the Prudential Committee and this man wrote, "If Dr. Davis was in favor of that settlement it is right, because I know that he would never favor the settlement of a question in any other way than in the right way."

Dr. Davis has built himself into the affection and the love of the missionaries of the American Board. He will never crumble a monument that time may crumble, because he has a monument of men.

Jiu-Jitsu by President Roosevelt's Teacher.

Japan succeeds because of the physical fitness of her soldiers. They practice Jiu-Jitsu, a system of physical culture which makes them giants of strength and endurance. The instructor of President Roosevelt, who learned all the high art of Jiu-Jitsu in Japan has been induced to reveal all these secrets to the American College of Physical Culture and Jiu-Jitsu, so that the American people may be instructed in the art by a series of photographs, in a manner which is at once comprehended by the person who receives the lessons, showing in detail, all the movements and leverages which make the Japanese famous.

We will send one FREE lesson to any one who is interested; we will furnish references from the best people in Boston and elsewhere, including trainers, professors of the leading universities in the United States, doctors, lawyers, etc.

JUBILEE BANQUET.

A jubilee banquet to celebrate the increase of membership in the Sunday school over the 250 mark was held in the Methodist vestry, Newtonville, last Tuesday evening. About 200 guests were present and an elaborate menu was served by caterer Marshall. The room was decorated with hemlock and evergreen and at each plate was a dainty card of the proceedings with a fine photograph of Mr. William T. Rich, to whose efforts is largely due the flourishing condition of the school. The favors at each plate consisted of sprigs of Evergreen tied with pink and blue ribbons each color representing one of the sides contesting for the honor of securing the greater number of members for the school. Music was provided during the evening by an orchestra and each speaker was given the Chautauqua Salute. Mr. J. B. Stewart for Mr. Calvert Cray chairman of the Pinks, the losing side, who was unable to be present, presented Miss Nelson chairman of the Blues, the winning side, with a handsome gold sword stick pin in a leather case. Mr. James H. Rand was toastmaster and the toasts with those responding were as follows: "The Place of the Sunday School in the Church," Rev. A. L. Squire; "The Joy of Bringing New Scholars," given as an original poem, Miss Madeline Ellis; "The Young Men of the Church," J. B. Stewart Jr.; "A Word for the Intermediates," Miss Mabel Rand; "The Marks of a Good Loser," J. B. Stewart; "How to Win Gracefully," Miss Nelson. Others who spoke by request were Mrs. S. A. Rich, Mr. Hugh H. Hewitt, Miss Fanny Stowell and Rev. E. E. Davidson. During the evening a song entitled "Forward Go" written by Rev. W. L. D. Twombly was sung also two songs by the Glee Club.

THE BLUE RACER.

It is About the Finest Thing in the Reptile Family.

"The swiftest snake I have ever known is the blue racer, as we used to call the reptile in the Arkansas foothills, and I want to tell you this particular snake can travel like a blue streak," said a man from Arkansas. "The fact is, the name 'blue racer' was given to the snake because of the reptile's fleetness. I have seen blue racers dart across the road at such a rapid pace that you could only see a mere suggestion of blue, and if you did not happen to know the snake and its habits you would not know what it was. You could not possibly get the idea that it was a snake you had seen flash through the dust of the country road unless you knew something of the blue racer. Just what speed the snake makes I do not know, but it is a rapid pace. The rattlesnake is supposed to have good speed, and, as a matter of fact, the rattler can whiz along at a pretty swift gait, but the rattlesnake is not in it with the blue racer. It would be interesting to know just how fast different snakes travel, and if we knew I dare say we would find that the blue racer is about the fleetest thing in the reptile family."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

ANTIQUITY OF SILK.

The Product Was Worth Its Weight in Gold For Centuries.

The Chinese empress Si-Ling-Chi, 2650 B. C., was supposed to be the first woman to dress herself in silken raiment, though silk was used in the arts nearly 1,000 years before her reign. She was placed among the Chinese Divinities under the title of "Shen-Tsuan," which means "first promoter of the silk industry."

Silk was worth its weight in gold in many parts of the world for centuries. Its immense cost may be estimated by the fact that a silken garment is mentioned as one of the wondrous prodigies of the Emperor Heliogabalus, while a gown of the same material was refused by Aurelius to his empress on the ground that he couldn't afford the price. Such was the importance of the silk industry in China that the people in the principal growing and manufacturing district took the name of "Seres" and their country "Sericia," from the word "Se," which in the ancient writings means "silk." A curious thing about silk is this: The raw material is produced by the cheapest labor in the world, while the finished product is among the most costly of merchandise.

VENETIAN WOMEN.

They Have No Need to Bather Their Heads About Fashion.

The women of Venice are absolutely free from the rule which Dame Fashion exercises over their sisters elsewhere. They care nothing for modes. With them the length of the skirt remains always the same, neither short nor long, and they always wear plainly made dark dresses, black stockings and the heeled slippers of the east. Hats are unknown.

The universal outdoor wrap for all ages and all sizes is the black shawl, with a deep silken fringe. It is folded with a short point above and a long one below, and sometimes it envelops the figure from head to foot. It is never fastened at the throat, and when it slips off it is gathered up with one outstretched arm, which makes the spectator think of a big bird stretching its wing.

In their attire the women of Venice are independent, only wearing local clothing, but, with feminine inconsistency, they are thoroughly up to date in the matter of hairdressing, the style of their coiffures changing from time to time, according to the vogue of the moment in London and Paris.

Only a Beginning.

The rich widower was paying assiduous court to the handsome young woman lawyer.

"I don't know, Mr. Welloch," she demurred. "There are—there are settlements to be considered, you know."

"If that is all, Miss Maggie," he said, "we'll have no trouble."

Here he slipped a diamond ring on her finger.

"How does that strike you?" he asked.

"I'm!" she rejoined, holding it up to the light and inspecting it critically. "I think it will do quite well—as a retainer."—Chicago Tribune.

A Bishop's Fall.

Bishop Peck of the Methodist church was a large man, weighing over 350 pounds. While on a tour and stopping at the residence of a presiding elder the bishop turned over in his bed and the entire furniture collapsed, dropping him to the floor with a tremendous thud. The presiding elder rushed upstairs, calling: "What is the matter, bishop? Is there anything I can do for you?" "Nothing is the matter," answered the bishop, "but if I don't answer the call to breakfast tell your wife to look for me in the cellar."

Excessments of Hoarding.

There must be an excitement about hoarding, which is almost like the pleasure of staking—taking the measure of the person you see in front of you and knowing the kind of appeal that is likely to weigh with him. Bishop of Manchester.

Hoping He Won't Find It.

"That man's always looking for work."

"Yes, that's what he says, but he's one of those people who go round with a snow shovel in July and a pitchfork in January."

Let no man talk of freedom until he is sure he can govern himself.—Goethe.

The appearance of the high school bataion on Memorial Day for the last time has brought out many expressions of regret that military drill has been abolished. It is fair to say that these remarks are usually based on sentiment and are uttered without due regard for the reasons which underlie the action of the school committee. Both the committee and the parents interested seek but one result, the benefit of the individual pupil and when the school committee, after two years discussion by an overwhelming vote substitutes gymnastic exercise for military drill, their side of the matter is certainly entitled to a fair hearing. The public ought not to accept snap judgments from irresponsible sources without giving weight to such deliberate action of the school authorities.

The object of physical training is to develop the immature youth that they may enter manhood and womanhood with sound bodies and minds.
Stripped of its glamour and brass buttons, the discussion centers around the proposition as to whether the best physical training is obtained from military drill or from gymnastic exercise. Eliminating the spectacular features of parading and prize drills, it is admitted that all the elements of military drill except the manual of arms can be obtained in the gymnasium. The setting up and marching movements can certainly be done without the musket. Indeed the Master of the Sword at West Point as long ago as 1896 stated "I deny absolutely that this (military) drill contains one worthy feature which cannot be duplicated and is duplicated—aye and discounted—in every well regulated gymnasium in the country." The manual of arms, executed in tight fitting costumes, with con-stricted movements and with more work on the right side than on the left, cannot for a moment compare with the all round development given by gymnasium exercise. No less an authority than Dr. D. A. Sargent of Harvard says: "The exercise of the manual is not performed with sufficient force and rapidity to engage the energetic contraction of the muscles employed. It is essentially a one sided exercise while the other muscles except the legs on parade do not get sufficient employment to keep them in good condition. During the drill the clothing is buttoned close around the chest and natural respiration is hindered." A committee of which Col.
Thos. F. Edmonds of the 1st Corps of Cadets was chairman reported that "the interests of sound military training and of rational physical training demand that an effective substitute for the musket and manual of arms be sought" for school boys.

It is a significant fact that in every first class European army gymnastics rather than the manual of arms are employed to strengthen suppleness and set up the recruit. Military drill in the preparatory schools of England, France and Germany was short lived and is not now in use.

We have stated these facts to show the general tendency of the times in this direction. The faults in this city are not radically different from those mentioned above save that the interest among the boys is constantly lagging. It is also significant that when the compulsory requirement for military drill ceases it is promptly given up.

Without criticism of the work of the drill master as it is impossible for him to have sharp personal oversight over each individual in the 350 boys under his care, it can also be said that the discipline in such a youthful body is what might be expected. As great stress has been laid on the theoretical value of the discipline in the drill, the fact that the actual results are very far from perfect, ought to be considered.

In place of the drill, the committee proposes a plan whereby the boys shall be given the simple forms of gymnastic exercise in small classes under the direct supervision of a competent instructor. This insures attention to individual physical peculiarities, deficiencies and deformities which is impossible under the old system.

This plan appears reasonable on its face, is in harmony with the best educational thought of the day, and it is certainly due our most excellent school committee to give it a fair who surmises that the sole objections to drill are confined to onesidedness and lack of discipline does not take that broad view of the case which has for its object the best physical devel-

Clubs and Lodges

The Odd Fellows lodges in the city attend Memorial Services at the Methodist Church, Newton Upper Falls, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Newton Hospital.

Twelve hundred dollars was added to the fund for the domestic building of the Hospital by the subscription whists held recently at the residences of Mrs. E. B. Haskell, Auburndale, Mrs. H. L. Burrage, West Newton, Mrs. C. S. Dennison, Newtonville, Mrs. Edw. Sawyer, Newton, Mrs. D.
S. Emery, Newton, Mrs. L. R. Spare Newton Centre, under the direction of Mrs. Geo. H. Talbot. The whists were a success socially as well as financially.

WILSON-MASON.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Ella M.
Mason on Baldwin street last Monday evening when her daughter Miss Inez Hayes Mason was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Page Wilson of Boston. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson pastor of Channing church. The bride was gowned in white lace and was attended by Mrs.
Edward Savory of Newtonville as matron of honor. Mr. Roy Babcock of Providence R. I., was the best man.
The house decorations were of daisies and ferns. A reception followed the ceremony which was attended by relatives and a few friends. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside at 76 Harvard street, Newtonville.

A Colonial Idol.

Two miles from Kanakura and about twenty from Yokohama, in Japan, on a terrace near the temple sits the most gigantic idol in the world. It is the brazen image of a deity and dates from the reign of the Emperor Shounu, who died A. D. 718. The dimensions of this idol are colossal. Its height from the base of the lotus flower upon which he sits to the top of his head is sixty-three and a half feet. The face is sixteen feet in length and nine and a half inches from corner to corner, the eyebrows five and a half feet and the ears eight and a half feet. The chest is twenty feet in depth, and the middle finger is exactly five feet long. The fifty-six leaves of the lotus throne are each ten feet long and six feet wide.

Burning of the Vanities.

Savannah once marked his strong condemnation of luxury by collecting a large number of articles which he regarded as vanities during the carnival to be burnt in the Piazza della Signoria, Florence, on Shrove Tuesday, 1497. In this "burning of the vanities" were included fancy costumes, carnival masks, dice, hair and rouge pots, cards and dice boxes, books and pictures, together with casts and valuable sculptures of questionable character. Built up into a pyramid of seven stages—signifying the seven deadly sins—the pile was burnt by lighting fagots placed in the center, while children standing round sang hymns before the assembled crowds.

The Man and the Place.

"This John Doe must be a terrible bad feller," mused Maw Hoptoad.
"He's allus in trouble. I see he's been indicted again. I wonder where he lives when he's to home?"
"I expect he lives in Edgely," chuckled Paw Hoptoad, "the place where so many are hung."—Houston Chronicle.

Uplifted.

"Yer honor," protested the seedy prisoner, "dis is jist a case of perlice persecution. They're tryin' ter keep me down, yer honor. You ain't goin' ter let 'em keep me down, are yer?"
"Certainly not," replied the magistrate. "I'm going to send you up for ninety days."—Philadelphia Press.

Sure of One Thing.

"The life of an insurance agent," sighed Premyunus, "is full of wormwood and gall."
"I hadn't noticed the wormwood," growled the victim.—Cleveland Leader.

No man can answer for his courage who has never been in danger.—Roche-foucauld.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed given by Benjamin Noyes to Charles W. Morris dated Dec. 31, 1893 and recorded with Middlesex South District Deeds Book 3072 page 321, which said mortgage was duly assigned to, and is now held by J. Frank Wellington of Somerville and for a breach of the conditions in said mortgage deed contained and for the purpose of foreclosing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises hereinafter described, on Wednesday July 19, 1905, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of that day all and singular

New Church at Newton Highlands.

NEW CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, NEWTON HIGHLANDS.

Newton Highlands is to be congratulated upon the existence of a progressive society which has brought to a successful issue their decision to have a new church and parish building wholly up to date in all its appointments.

The Congregational society at the junction of Lincoln and Hartford streets have worshipped in the wooden structure for 33 years.

The old building which has been torn down was of the wooden Gothic type, built at a time when the village carpenter thought that the Colonial meeting house had had its day. The new structure as shown in the cut is to be constructed of Weymouth sea face granite with sufficient Indiana buff limestone to give an agreeable variety and refinement.

The lot is triangular, the two streets forming an acute angle toward the village square towards which the tower faces. The clock will be 15 feet higher than the one in the old tower and can readily be seen above the trees. The church is placed parallel with Hartford street and the parish building at right angles with Lincoln street. As the two buildings join at the rear a court effect is obtained enclosed by the church and parish building.

ing and a low wall tying the two together forms a raised terrace which it is intended to plant with shrubs. This group situated among fine trees should be an attractive addition to the town. The auditorium is 42 feet in width with transepts each 9 feet in depth. There is a centre aisle 5 feet in width and two wall aisles. The pews are straight and will seat 525. Provision is made for a gallery in the tower above the vestibule which will accommodate over 100. The chancel is raised four steps above the church floor. At the rear a platform is raised one step forming a permanent location for the communion table.

The interior wood work is quarter sawed white oak. The roof is finished in dark cypress with hammer beam trusses and the ceiling of chancel will be entirely of cypress.

At the junction of the two buildings a vestibule gives access to both the church and parish house and contains a broad staircase leading to the basement dining room which is a well lighted and pleasant room seating 150 at tables. A well appointed kitchen extending entirely across the Lincoln street end of the building. On the opposite end spacious dressing rooms are arranged for men and women. In the first story on the same level with the church is a lecture and Sunday school room seating 200, with the ladies parlor at the south end and a primary class room at the north end, both opening into the lecture room giving a total seating capacity of 340. Room for the Sunday school library is also provided.

Both the exterior and interior is modelled after the gothic parish churches of England.

The entire building will be constructed of granite and limestone with a green slate roof and hard wood floors. The heating and ventilating has been carefully considered. Both electric and gas lighting will be installed and it is the intention to complete the building with the most approved appointments. The society are to be congratulated upon the success of their enterprise and the conscientious care bestowed upon the work by its pastor Rev. Geo. T. Smart D. D. and its building committee Edgar W. Warren, Seward W. Jones and Frederick R. Hayward. The architect is George F. Newton of 6 Beacon street, Boston. The contractor is Henry H. Hunt of West Newton. The building will cost between $60,000 and $70,000.

LOVING TRIBUTES.

ument more substantial than that in the love of the missionaries and his associates and friends in this mission work. The love with which he loved has been returned and as he loved men into the kingdom so his love is multiplying itself through the missionaries as they are loving men and nations into the kingdom of God. Dr.
Davis' monument is erected in the affections of those who worked with him and in the Christian institution that, as a member of the Prudential Committee, he has helped establish and sustain during the last nine years. I said at the beginning that at first he was elected a member of the special sub-committee on Japan, to that committee belonged the responsibility of considering all difficult and trying questions and important questions connected with the mission work and investigating them thoroughly and reporting back to the Prudential Committee; all measures for advance issued from that committee. It was the business of that committee to understand the Japanese people, the Japanese nation, the Japanese intellectual life, the Japanese religious and moral life and to advise measures and plans for elevating and purifying and bringing all into touch with Jesus Christ. For the last two years Dr. Davis was chairman of that committee. Now it is an interesting fact that only a brief time before his spirit was released when his weakened body had not strength enough to express the thoughts of that vital soul that seemed active to the very last, almost the last words he uttered, expressing any thought beyond his immediate surroundings, he said "I am chairman of the Committee on Japan; tell them to be generous, tell them to do more for Japan; tell them to be generous with Japan." The last words of our brother were the expression of his thought and his affection for Japan, that Japan might become Christian and I wonder if the disembodied spirits have power to go on in the lines of their previous desires, thoughts and activities, if our brother now is not moving on the minds of somebody to give himself for Japan, upon the minds of somebody to be generous toward Japan at this time, that Japan's intellectual and religious life may be Christian through and through. Our brother gave himself to the work.

Just in closing let me say that there are few men who give to those who know them best, such an impression of Christlikeness. I have seen our brother around the Prudential Committee table in the midst of ardent discussion where strong men differed in their judgment as to the measures to be followed; I have seen him when he felt through and through the importance of the decision and took no small part in the discussion and yet in public debate or in private conversation in time of great urgency or simply in the conversation of friendship, I have never heard our brother utter a word that he could not have uttered had the Lord Jesus Christ been sitting at his side—Christlike—and every life is the richer for having come in contact with that life and the world is richer because our brother lived.

At the midweek mee ng at Eliot church last Friday evening several members made brief remarks on the death of the pastor. A committee consisting of Messrs. Thomas Weston Charles H. Buswell and Everett E.
Kent offered the following set of resolutions which were accepted.

Eliot Church and Society in their great sorrow for the death of their beloved pastor, Rev. William H.
Davis, D. D., desire to express their most profound and heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved family, and some appreciation of the love they bore him, of his exemplary life and of his devoted Christian character during the years of his faithful and earnest ministry among us.

He came to our Church a little more than nine years ago from one of the largest and most influential churches of the West after a successful pastorate of more than twelve years, beloved and honored for his varied usefulness and his successful ministry. He brought to us a reputation for good judgment, knowledge of affairs, scholarly attainments, ability as a sound and successful minister and the most loyal affection of his people.
This reputation he sustained during his labors with us. His uniform kindness, his frank, cordial manner and generous sympathy won for him the largest place in the honor and love of this Church and Congregation. All who were in trouble always found him a safe and trusty adviser; those who were in sorrow found him a tender and sympathetic friend; and he was most happy in having the confidence and affection of all who knew him. His whole heart and soul were in the work of his chosen profession, laboring incessantly by his personal advice and by his daily influence to emphatically the gospel of his Master which he so faithfully preached.

As a preacher, he was earnest and enthusiastic, rightly dividing the truth which he fearlessly presented and endeavoring by all of his ability to strengthen the Christian faith and hope of those who heard him and to win souls for Christ. He was a close student of the times and brought to his hearers the results of careful thought and study to illustrate or exemplify the great truths of the Scripture. His tact, goodness and superior judgment were such that his advice upon difficult matters was widely sought. He was interested in the great missionary problems of the day and his unusual executive ability enabled him to render most efficient service as one of the Prudential Committee of the American Board. His labors were incessant in solving the great educational problems of the times, while his devotion to the young people of his own congregation was an inspiration to them and a joy to their parents and friends. We shall ever remember his able and efficient labors of love among us, his devout piety, his earnest presentation of gospel truths, his exemplary life and influence, his strong Christian character, and his earnest desire to make men better, their lives sweeter, and that they might be brought into the fold of Christ. He had a strong hold on the great truths of the Bible, its promises, hopes and rewards, and by his works and life "allured to brighter worlds and led the way."

These resolutions were passed by the North Evangelical Church last Friday evening:

Resolved: That in the death of Rev. Wm. H. Davis, D. D., we have sustained a great loss in our church and community.

For the years that he has been minister to our mother church, the Eliot, he has been an untiring friend to this church in its practical and spiritual affairs.

We value him most highly as a man and Christian brother beloved, and for his spiritual leadership, as well as for his works sake, wherein his counsel and wisdom and unselfish interest aided us so largely in equipping our church with its organ and Sunday school addition, inspiring us with renewed courage and zeal in the Lord's work.

We tender to his family in this hour of their affliction our heartfelt sympathy and may the God of all comfort, sustain, strengthen, establish them through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Voted: That these resolutions be placed on our records and a copy thereof be sent to the widow and family.

Joshua Whittaker,
Wm. E. Lowry,
Rev. Henry E. Oxnard, Committee of the Church.

Sunday morning there was a large gathering in Eliot church and the exercises were appropriate for the occasion. Over the late pastor's vacant chair was fastened a beautiful wreath of roses from the prudential committee and in front of the pulpit was another wreath of ivy from the Sunday school. Rev. Mr. Hatch read the resolutions passed on Friday and preached the sermon. A double quartet gave a beautiful rendering of "O Paradise" and favorite hymns of Dr.
Davis were sung by the congregation.

The body of Rev. Dr. Davis, who died Wednesday at Clifton Springs, N. Y., reached Newton on Saturday and was placed in his study in Eliot church, where it was guarded until removed for burial on Monday in Chelsea, Vt., by delegations from the Young Men's Club.

The remains were taken to Chelsea, Vermont, on Monday where services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hatch and the interment was in the family lot.

The speakers at the funeral services Sunday afternoon had been previously designated by Dr. Davis before his death.

Norumbega Park

Norumbega Park—Each season shows an increase in the patronage at Norumbega Park and it almost seems as though each Sunday showed an increase over the preceding one and last Sunday the turnstiles at the entrance were kept busier than ever. There is no pleasanter car ride in the suburbs of Boston than that which ends at Norumbega Park. It would almost seem as though the little blue pen-nants on the trolley poles of cars going to Norumbega beckon to recreation seekers and invited them to this pleasant resort on the banks of the beautiful Charles. The slogan adopted by patrons of this resort, "Follow the Flag" is becoming more popular each day. The daily band concerts, which are an innovation this season by Mully's band are a feature of the day's enjoyment and are continuous from 12:30 to 8 p. m.

Quære 1. I have a row of fine fruit trees standing about four feet from the division line between my place and my next door neighbor's. The branches of all the trees extend beyond the fence over my neighbors land. He has always picked the fruit from those branches claiming that it belonged to him. Is he right, if not what remedy have I?

2. Please tell me whether I own the fruit which falls naturally from the branches which hang over my neighbors land or whether he does.

3. I also have some trees whose branches extend over the sidewalks.
Have passersby any right to pick the fruit? R. L. P.

Answer 1. You own the fruit even on the branches which extend over your neighbor's land. Notwithstanding a popular idea to the contrary the whole tree and its products belong to the man on whose land the trunk grows. Of course your neighbor has the right to cut off the branches which extend over his line, because they are trespassing, but he can neither appropriate the fruit nor prevent you from reaching over and gathering it. If he does take it you can obtain possession of the fruit by replevin if you can identify it or you can recover its value by suit.

Answer 2. This question has never been brought before any court for decision but a judge has intimated and learned legal authors have said that you own the fruit which falls from the overhanging branches on your neighbor's land and that you may go upon his premises in a peaceable way and gather the fruit, so long as you do not injure his land by so doing. You would be trespassing in going upon your neighbor's land but your trespass is legally justified as you go there to obtain your own property.

Answer 3. The public has no more right to pick the fruit from branches which extend over the sidewalk than your neighbor has to pick the fruit mentioned in your first question. The cases are similar.

SUMMER HOMES IN VERMONT.

MANY DELIGHTFUL VACATION RESORTS
AMONG THE GREEN HILLS.

"Summer Homes among the Green Hills" is the title of an attractive publication issued by the Central Vermont Railway Company. The book is intended to give readable and reliable information about the vacation places along that road in Vermont, on the shores of Lake Champlain and in Canada, and its pages are filled with suggestions for those seeking summer homes. The various hotels and boarding places; their locations, rates and facilities are accurately described. More than one hundred half-tones add to the interest of the book, and a brightly written description of this delightful summer country completes its contents. The book may be had by sending six cents in stamps to T. H. Hanley, N. E. P. A. 360 Washington St., Boston.

Rev. Wm. H. Haskell Dead.

Rev. William H. Haskell died suddenly Sunday night at the home of his son, Dr. Harris B. Haskell on Woodland road, Auburndale, whom he has been visiting for about a month. Mr. Haskell was born in Green, Me., 71 years ago and received his early education in the public schools and at Phillips Exeter Academy. He later graduated at the Bangor Theological School, and his first pastorate was at Woodford, Me. He was later chosen pastor of the Second Congregational Church at Falmouth, Me., with which he was connected for thirty-four years.

Of late years he has resided with his son, Dr. M. C. Haskell, in Amherst. He was seventy-one years old, and is survived by his wife and six sons, Drs. F. M. Haskell of Yale College, M. C. Haskell of Amherst, P.
T. Haskell of Sanbornville, N. H., and H. B. Haskell of Auburndale, and E. J. Haskell and William F.
Haskell of New York.

Funeral services were held from the house Tuesday at 4, Rev. Mr.
Jenkins officiating and the remains were taken to Amherst on Wednesday for interment.

LETTER TO JAMES PAXTON,

NEWTON.

Dear Sir: Why don't we make paint, as many others do, to go three-quarters as far, or two-thirds, or half or a third, or a quarter?

Mr. Aaron Higgins, Plainfield, N. J., always used 15 gallons of paint for his house; Devco took 11.
There are two sorts of paint: all paint, true paint, strong paint, full-measure; and part paint, false paint, weak paint, short-measure.

The paint-manufacturers are two sorts: Devco and the rest.

JUNE RECREATION.

Recreation for June is filled with good things for the out door people. The leading story, "The Road," by Walter K. Stone, illustrated by the writer and Charles Livingston Bull, contains an urgent appeal to the jaded city sportsman, asking him to turn aside from the beaten paths and explore the by-ways and high-ways through the fields and in the woods. The simple story has the tang of unfrequented spots and the lure of wilderness, this feeling being well carried out in the number of full page pictures. "Joe's Double Catch," by Don Cameron, is a charming short story, with a country boy and girl and a big trout as the stars. Alvah D. James, the South American explorer, has a short story, "Mr. Peterson of Paris," describing an incident on the Pacific. "Water in Camp," "The Camera and the Automobile," "My Fairy Ship," "The Play Ground of the East," "John Davenport, Colfax," and "Butterfly Farming for Profit" are some of the remaining features, which cannot but make readers of this splendid out door publication happy. Forty pages of the magazine are filled with bright and cheerful gossip, information, suggestion and amusement on motoring, guns and ammunition, tennis, fishing, dogs, photography and athletics.

Coming Attractions

Tremont Theatre—Judging from the size and quality of the audiences that have been crowding the cool and comfortable Tremont for the past three weeks to witness Henry W. Savage's big "Prince of Pilsen" company present that best of all Pixley and Luder's work, the present engagement of "The Prince" will be one of the most prosperous that has ever been played here, and it seems a pity that it cannot be prolonged. The cast is ideal in every particular, containing as it does so many old favorites, and the newcomers have proven themselves in every way worthy of all that was said of them in advance. The scenery and costumes are new and bright, the stage pictures artistic and beautiful, and the chorus is large, handsome and able to sing. "Kafkazelum," the new musical oddity by Allen Lowe and George Rosey, is to be presented at the Tremont June 26th for an engagement of two weeks only.

Keith's Theatre—The delightful concerts of popular music by the Fadettes Woman's Orchestra are easily the hit of the summer vaudeville at Keith's, and inasmuch as they make a weekly change of program, it is practically a new act. There is no diminution in the quality of the vaudeville talent, in fact, some of the acts lately have been even stronger than those included in the winter show. Scheduled for the coming week are Clayton White and Marie Stuart, in their latest character sketch, "Paris," with singing and dancing specialties by the lady; Emma Francis and her Arabian whirlwinds, introducing her original and novel specialty Keno, Walsh and Melrose, one of the world's greatest comic acrobatic acts; Mitchell and Cain, burlesque comedians and Taylor Holmes, in a comedy effort at serious comedy.

STEARN'S-HOBART.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Wednesday evening, when Miss Miriam Vere Hobart, the daughter of ex-alderman and Mrs. Kirk W. Hobart of Newton became the bride of Mr. Gordon Weld Stearns of Cincinnati, O.

The church was thronged with the friends of the happy couple and was beautifully decorated in green and white. The guests were seated by the ushers, Messrs N. Teworgy Hobart of Newton, Minot Stearns of Cincinnati, Theodore Hagood of Boston, Maurice Stearns of Providence and Arthur and Robin Dole of Jamaica Plain.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Mabel Stearns of Cincinnati, sister of the groom, Emily Stearns, Louisa Stearns, Harriet Reid and Mildred Foss of Newton, gowned alike in white point d'esprit over pale green and carrying pink roses, entered from the front of the church and proceeded up the right aisle where they met the bride, at the back of the church. Here the procession reformed, the ushers leading the way down the left aisle, followed by the bridesmaids, the maid of honor, Miss Janie D. Hobart, sister of the bride, and the bride on the arm of her father.

At the chancel the party was met by the groom, the best man, Mr. George Monroe of New York City and Rev. Wolcott Calkins, who performed the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome dress of white liberty satin, elaborately trimmed with Duchesse point lace. She wore a tulle veil, fastened with lilacs of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of the same flower. Her only ornament was a diamond star the gift of the groom. The maid of honor was gowned in pale green liberty, trimmed with green and white lace and carried white roses.

A largely attended reception followed at the Hobart residence, 123 Sargent street which was decorated in green and white for the occasion the bride and groom being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Wood Hobart and Mr. and Mrs. George Herbert Stearns.

Mr. and Mrs. Stearns will take a wedding trip through the west and Canada and upon their return will reside at the Barclay, Cincinnati, O.

The Original Lovers' Leap.

Sappho's Leap was the name given to a white cliff or promontory anciently called Leucadia, now Cape Imetto, at the southern extremity of Santa Maura, one of the Ionian islands. It was so called because Sappho, the poetess, is reported to have thrown herself from this height into the sea. A criminal, with liris attached to him to break his fall, was thrown from the cliff at the annual festival of Apollo, and if he reached the water unhurt he was picked up by boats placed there for that purpose. This is the rock from which, according to the story, lovers throw themselves in order to be free from the pangs of love.

Waban School

On account of the storm of Monday the track contests were held last week Tuesday morning on the school play grounds. The 100 yard dash was won by E. Irving Eldredge of Brooklyn, N. Y., time 10 3-5 seconds, with Arthur Bartlett, of Newton Centre, second, and Harrison W. Mellen, of Newton Highlands, third. The shot put was won by Arthur Bartlett, distance 30 feet, 8 1-2 inches, with Eldredge second, and L. W. Sinclair of Phippsburg, Me. third. The running high jump was won by Arthur Bartlett, distance 5 ft 1 1-2 inches with Julian Willson of West Medford, second and Eldredge, third. The 220 yard dash was won by Eldredge, time 25 seconds, Mellen, second, and Sinclair, third. The running broad jump was won by Bartlett, distance 16 ft 4 1-2 inches, Eldredge, second and Mellen third. In the Junior events, the fifty yard dash was won by Porter D. Collins of Philadelphia, George Rondelle, of Duxbury, second and Osman Packard, of Roslindale, third. The running broad jump for Juniors was won by Rondelle, with Packard, second and Collins, third. The potato race was won by Collins. The award of prizes for the most points made was given to Arthur Bartlett, first, 18 points, Eldredge, second, 17 points. The medal for the largest number of points in the Juniors went to Collins with Rondelle a very close second.

Commencement Vesper Service of the Waban School was held on Sunday afternoon June 11th, in the rooms of the school. Responsive readings and singing were participated in by the audience, prayer was offered and the Scriptures read by the principal and a very helpful talk delivered by Rev. George T. Smart, of Newton Highlands. His subject was "The Quality of Distinction." He gave as his definition of distinction worth of character and worthiness of the instruments through which character manifests itself, because these instruments are many. He used as his illustration the character of Jesus Christ and drew from it many lessons helpful to all present.

The commencement address by Mr. Edwin D. Mead on "The Higher Patriotism" was forceful and inspiring. He said that a scene like the present with its delightful surroundings calculated to aid in the contemplation of all that is best in the thought of the world should not cause us to forget that there are other scenes which call for our attention. It is very fitting that we should be reminded of these scenes, "lest we forget, lest we forget." There is nothing so impressive in the Russo-Japanese war as the form of Tolstoi and his position in the midst of the aristocracy of Russia. Ten years ago he said "The time has come when patriotism has come to be a virtue if it threatens Christianity which would make the whole world a brotherhood. The same is true of all our emotions. There is no more sacred word than home and yet how dreary the home where there is no place at the table to think of community and national interests. Edward Everett Hale is the incarnation of the Boston Spirit, yet his "Man Without a Country" is our patriotic classic. True Bostonian, true New Englander, true American, true cosmopolitan is Dr. Hale. To talk of different hemispheres today is an anachronism. It is all one round world. Alexander Hamilton said "Wherever liberty is there is my country." Every nation is feeling that national life is not sufficient. Kant's doctrine is that universal peace will come only with a universal republic. By republic Kant meant a nation with representative government whose legislative power is not in the same hands as the executive power. Peace can come only with popular rights. It is given to us to lead the world with this idea of democracy into conditions of peace. Democracy is another way of spelling education. When the people undertake to exercise their own kingship all must be kings. The work of education becomes the highest and most sacred of works. The church and the school must make politics their work. The school, which is the state in the capacity of educator and the church reminding the people of the higher judgment renders the community safe. After all there is a sense in "which Caesar must listen to Peter" says Dante. It is for us to keep this republic ever true to the heavenly vision. A nation is truly democratic only as its citizens are laboring to make it a republic of God.

Lawn Party.

The Newton Highlands Congregational Sunday school had a most enjoyable and successful lawn party on the estate of Mr. Seward W. Jones, Columbus street, Saturday afternoon and evening. The grounds were attractively decorated with lanterns and bunting and were particularly handsome during the evening. There were tables of groceries under charge of Fred King, candy table under Earle Bowen, a lemonade table in the summer house in charge of Ruth King and ice cream was served by Mrs. King's class. A unique feature of the affair was the fact that the admission fee included a plate of ice cream. An interesting exhibit was the sub target gun, the invention of Mr. H. H. Cummings. This gun has an electric attachment by which the exact point pierced by the bullet in the distant target, is indicated by a pin prick in a miniature paper target near the muzzle of the gun.

In the afternoon a dozen or more little girls attractively dressed as fairies with muslin dresses and wings of gauze, gave some pretty marching and dancing movements and a wand drill under direction of Mrs. C. H. Newhall. Those taking part were Ruth Arend as queen, Marguerite Jones, Esther Cummings, Annie Copping, Ruth Moore, Mildred Moore, Edna Allen, Elinor Shumway, Olive and Laura McMullin, Marion McCullum, Olive Titus and Bessie Jones. In the evening Handley's orchestra gave a fine program and there was a good attendance. About $500 was made by the affair.

LAKE MEMPHREMAGOG.

THE "LOCH LOMOND" OF AMERICA. Lake Memphremagog, in Northern Vermont and Canada, is one of the most charming resorts in the Green Mountain State. This lake is thirty miles long and two and a quarter miles wide, and over two thirds of its length is in Canada. In early days a favorite haunt of the Indians for fishing and camping; it was named by them Memphremagog, meaning, "beautiful water." The Steamer "Lady of the Lake" leaves Newport sailing the entire length of the lake to Magog, occupying about four hours. The view as witnessed from the decks of the steamer is magnificent; the charms of the rocky and uneven shore, the towering cliffs, the long stretches of green forest land and the distant peaks of Owl's Head and Orford Mount, with intervening sweeps of beautiful valley land, present a panorama which appears more beautiful at every turn. The "Switzerland of America" this region has been called, and many people see in Memphremagog another Loch Lomond, while the Canadian portion has frequently been termed the Geneva of Canada." In order to get a comprehensive idea of the marvelous scenic surprises of this region, send two cents in stamps to the General Passenger Department, Boston and Maine Railroad, Boston, for their beautiful illustrated booklet, entitled "Lake Memphremagog and About There," and two cents for the companion booklet, entitled "Valley of the Connecticut and Northern Vermont."

Base Ball.

It was a great game. For weeks the ball game between the married men and the bachelors had been advertised around Newton and those who attended the sad spectacle Saturday afternoon on the Cedar street grounds were repaid for the trouble and incidental expenses.

Chief cook C. G. Newcomb was the whole show. He captained or tried to captain the married men: he devised the costume of blue overalls which each benedict had to wear, and his own appearance was immodest; to say the least. The star of the game was Pitt Parker the crayon artist, whose cartoons had done so much to advertise the game. Parker hasn't any flesh to spare and those baggy overalls were a blessing in disguise. He could play good ball, however and made four of the nine runs for his side. Holland, the letter carrier didn't have much to do. He is big enough to hit a home run every time he came to the bat and actually made one run. His base running made lots of fun for the spectators. Moore, the expressman, was a sight every time he came to the bat. His efforts to hit the ball were pathetic in the extreme. Donnelly didn't have much to do in the field but he was a star at the bat. He made two base hits and one run. But as a kicker he was a great success. In the last of the fifth inning when the umpire was in danger of his life, Donnelly was right in the midst of the rumpus. Jimmie Burns, the letter carrier, was cheerful and modest as usual. He did good work as catcher, but anyone could steal second on him. Billy Hylands was a good pitcher, if the umpire had let him alone. The decisions on balls and strikes were something fierce and poor Billy suffered the most. We advise that umpire to keep away from Hylands when next he needs a shave.

Geo. Noden, the painter, had nothing to do in right field but look pretty and he continued doing nothing when he went to the bat. Elliot distinguished himself by actually getting to first but he had to get hit by a ball in order to do it, his other attempt at the bat being a miserable failure.

The single men had been advertised by Parker as "would be's" but if the ball game was any criterion of married life, we are sure the young men would prefer single blessedness for a while longer. The boys put up a good game and it is not their fault that the score resulted in a tie. Dr. Bunker was an ideal umpire. As the weather was warm the doctor discarded his coat and vest and his sylph like form loomed large in its vast expanse of shirt front. The doctor kept well away from the pitching line for fear of fouls, but he was not a coward. He didn't know much about the rules of the game and when Campbell ran home from third on a blocked ball and was touched at the plate, the Doctor declared him out. There was a rumpus at once, but the Doctor stuck to his decision, although in the centre of a howling mob of players.

The game itself was a tie after five innings had been played each side scoring nine runs.

First innings. Parker hit a high fly and was safe at first, and came home on a wild throw to second. Holland fled out to first. Moore sent a grounder to first and Newcomb struck out. One run.

Field knocked a hot liner to Hylands and was out. Earle made a pretty hit over third, stole second and third and came home on Mansfield's hit to Newcomb. Wharton's pop fly was safe, he stole second with impunity, and came home on Noden's hit. Mansfield's hit to first was fatal. Noden hit to centre, went to second on a weak attempt to catch him off his base, but was left at third when Campbell struck out. Two runs.

Second innings. Donnelly made a fine two bagger to centre, but was put out at the plate in attempting to reach home on Burns hit to the same place. Hylands made a safe hit near second base but he and Burns were both left when Noden and Elliot struck out. No runs.

Mosher got his base on balls but was put out at second by Graham's hit to short stop. Mills and Field were both out at first after weak hits to the infield. No runs.

Third innings. Parker got his base on balls, stole second and came home on Holland's hit to centre. Moore struck out. Newcomb hit to centre sending Holland home, and stole second. He was sent home himself by Donnelly's two bagger, and Donnelly came home on an unsuccessful attempt to catch him at third. Burns fled to centre field. Hylands hit safely to right but was forced out at second by Noden's hit to short stop. Four runs.

Earle and Wilson got bases on balls, although Newcomb made a bad muff of the latter's foul near first. Both came home on passed balls and Mansfield's safe hit to left field. Noden popped up a high fly which Hylands muffed and stole second. Both he and Mansfield came home, when Campbell's hit to second base was muffed by Newcomb at first. Campbell got around to third in the attempt to catch Noden at the plate, and scored when Mosher died at first. Graham and Mills were out at first after weak hits to the infield. Five runs.

Fourth innings. Elliot got to first by getting hit by the pitcher, took second on a passed ball and came home on Parker's two base hit to centre. Parker was presented with a bouquet of flowers when he came to the bat in this inning and responded by a two base hit. Holland sent a hot one to the pitcher which was too warm for comfort and reached first. Moore got his base on balls and the bases were full when Newcomb came to the bat. His hit to centre field brought in Parker, but Holland was too heavy to reach the plate and was left on base as Donnelly struck out. Burns fled out to the pitcher and Hylands struck out. Two runs.

Bascom went in to pitch this inning for the married men. He is a mild, benevolent looking chap, but he began hostilities by hitting both Field and Earle with pitched balls. Field was out at third on Wilson's hit in that direction, but Earle and Wilson both scored on passed balls. Mansfield and Noden both struck out. Two runs.

Fifth inning. Norris who took Noden's place struck out. Briggs, who took Elliot's position hit to second who fumbled. He got to third on an unsuccessful attempt to catch him at second and came home on Parker's safe hit over third. Parker stole second, got to third when Holland hit to short and home when Moore was out at first. Newcomb also died at first. Two runs.

Campbell was safe at first after that baseman had fumbled, stole second and third and was declared out at the plate on a blocked ball. Mosher struck out, and Graham fled out to centre. No runs.

panied with the name of the writer, and unpublished communications cannot be paid for at regular rates, 25 cents per line in the reading matter, or $1.00 per inch in the advertising columns.

The new locations desired by the street railway company are clearly in the way of public convenience. The extension to Riverside has long been needed and the private way scheme is a first class method of reaching the spot. The connection at Newton Highlands enables the road to send its Needham cars to Lake street by way of Centre street and Newton Centre instead of the present route via Walnut street and Commonwealth avenue. This connection does not interest Newton citizens as much as it does those of Needham, but it is in the line of making more direct routes for travel and as such should be encouraged.

Hundreds of our young people graduated from the grammar schools this week, hearing words of good advice from their teachers for the last time.
Newton has always been fortunate in regard to the caliber of its teaching force and these young persons have had many advantages in the start in life which they have received. Long may the Newton schools continue in their good work.

It is too bad that the honorable mayors of Massachusetts were deprived of the privilege of seeing the beauties of Newton. Let us hope that the pleasure is but postponed.

The Mayors Club of Massachusetts held its summer outing on Wednesday in this city as the guests of ex-mayor Weeks. The party consisting of about 30 mayors and ex mayors left Boston at 12:30 on special cars for the Brae Burn club where a dainty luncheon was served. The party then enjoyed the Theatre at Norumbega park and then proceeded to the Newton Club for dinner.

Short addresses were made by Mayor Weed of Newton, State Treasurer Chapin of Holyoke, Gen. E. R.
Champlin, former mayor of Cambridge; ex-mayor Sortwell of Cambridge; Mayor Chandler of Somerville; ex-Mayor Glines of Somerville, Senator Dean of Malden, Mayor Hastings of Malden and Congressman J. W.
Weeks.

The best part of the arranged program was abandoned on account of the weather conditions and the guests missed an automobile ride through Brookline and Newton and the band concert at the Newton club.

The publishers of Suburban Life can easily claim "the best number yet" in their July issue. It is largely given over to the interests of vacationists and is filled with the atmosphere of fields and woods, seashore and country. These vacation papers are especially attractive, written as they are from the view-point of personal experiences of the authors.
Conspicuous among them are "Vacation Days on an Abandoned Farm,"
"The Suburbanite at the Seashore," "The Fun of Boating," "An Amateur Photographer's Vacation," "How to Camp Out," and "Planning a Pedestrian Tour." These entertaining features are supplemented by a goodly number of practical papers relating to the home or to outdoor interests, and there is found a deal of information on subjects uppermost in the minds of suburban dwellers. Two articles that are of interest, especially to persons who contemplate earning their living from an out-of-door employment, are "Making a Good Living from a Ten-Acre Farm" and "Harvesting Five Tons of Honey in One Year," both being actual experiences; "How to Know the Common Mushrooms" is a concise paper full of value to the would be mushroom gatherer; that the motor car is rapidly widening the radius of Suburban life is shown in an article entitled "The Automobile and its Relation to Suburban Life."

Why the Table Knife Was Rounded.

Table knives until the seventeenth century always had sharply pointed blades, a natural survival from the days when a knife was at once a dagger, hunting knife and table knife and fork combined. The rounded end was introduced from France. It happened that Cardinal Richelieu was compelled to entertain at his table Chancellor Seguier, a man of rude manners, who at the close of the meal proceeded to use his knife as a toothpick. This so upset the cardinal that he ordered the end of every knife in his possession to be rounded, and so great was Richelieu's influence that the fashion was adopted all over the country.

Travel in the Old Days.

Before the days of the railroad travelers from Philadelphia to New York went by wagon. The following old advertisement outlines the process: "John Butler, with his wagon, sets out on Mondays from his house at the Sign of the Death of the Fox, in Strawberry alley, and drives the same day to Trenton ferry, where Francis Holman meets him and proceeds on Tuesday to Brunswick, and the passengers and goods belong shifted into the wagon of Isaac Fitzrandolph, he takes them to the New Blazing Star, where Rubin Fitzran-dolph, with a boat well suited, will meet them and take them to New York that night."

Willie's Reformation.

"Your son Willie seems to have got over being round shouldered. Every time I've seen him lately he's been standing up like a man."
"Yes; after years of scolding him for his stooping I tried a new plan."
"What was it?"
"I told him he had a magnificent chest."—Newark News.

The Open Fireplace.

I have seen respectability and am-bability grouped over the air tight stove, I have seen virtue and intelligence hovering over the register, but I have never seen true happiness in a family circle where the faces were not illumined by the blaze of an open fireplace.— O. W. Holmes.

Diplomacy.

Mamma—I hope Willie didn't tell a fib when you found he had been at the jam. Aunt Jane—Not at all! When I discovered that somebody had been at the jam he looked at Fido and said, "I didn't know, auntie, that dogs liked jam."—Boston Transcript.

A Linguist.

"What has he learned at college?"
"Why, he seems to have devoted himself to the study of modern languages.
I've heard him talk baseball, football, golf, tennis, horse, polo and poker in the course of half an hour."

Her Secret.

Mr. Jones—Mary, can a woman keep anything to herself? Mrs. Jones—Yes; her private opinion of her husband.— Chicago Journal.

All the Way Round.

Margie—If you don't quit teasing me I'll tell mamma, and she'll tell papa, then papa will whip you. Harry—Then I'll cry, and grandma will give me some candy, and I won't give you any.

If you don't see what you want in this world you can ask for it, but the chances are that you won't get it.— Portland (Ore.) Journal.

Three Things Desired.

As a result of observation and reflection during a long life touching public men and measures in wide variety I would desire for my country three things above all others to supplement American civilization: From Great Britain, her administration of criminal justice; from Germany, her theater, and from any or every European country save Russia, Spain and Turkey, its government of cities.—Andrew D.
White in Century.

Patchouly.

The introduction of the perfume called patchouly was caused by the desire of French shawlmakers to deceive their customers. When shawls were first brought from India they were perfumed with patchouly, an extract of an Indian plant. The French soon learned to imitate the shawls to perfection, but the patchouly bothered them, as they could find no substitute for it, and this fact was used as the surest means of distinguishing the genuine India shawls from the French counterfeits. At last somebody discovered the secret and brought a quantity of patchouly to France. For a time the discoverers kept the matter to themselves and reaped a harvest. Then some one gave away the secret. The perfume soon became popular and has never since passed completely out of use, though several times superseded temporarily by other perfumes.

Diamonds.

Previous to the discovery of the Brazilian mines in 1727 diamonds were found chiefly in India and Borneo. The most valuable Brazilian diamond was the Southern Star, found in 1854, which weighed 254 carats in the rough and 124 carats after cutting. The South African diamonds do not equal the Brazilian for purity on the average. Other countries where diamonds are known are the United States, British Guiana, Russia, China, Sumatra and Australia.
In the United States the stones are found only occasionally in alluvial material and drift. The great lakes region is one of the districts in which they are found.

Owing to the peculiar circular or oval form of the deposits in which diamonds are discovered in South Africa it is considered that these deposits mark the vents or pipes of ancient volcanoes, and it is therefore considered that the presence of diamonds is connected with volcanic activity, the stones either having been brought up from the interior of the earth or having been formed where found under the influence of molten rock in connection with carbonaceous shale.

Monkeys at Play.

"Nothing is more instructive," said the zoo keeper to a Baltimore Herald reporter, "than to watch young monkeys at play. These interesting creatures investigate everything with insatiable curiosity. They do things startling enough to convince me that they have almost human minds."

"I had in India a young monkey that learned to put the key in the lock and unlock the chain that fastened it to a pole. Near this monkey there always lay a brush with a handle that unscrewed. In time the monkey learned to unscrew the handle and then to screw it in again."

"A friend of mine had a monkey that he kept chained just out of reach of the hearth fire. This monkey learned to tear strips from newspapers, roll them into long tapers and light them in the flames."

Beware the Easy Shelter.

Years are but a fool's measure for youth, which is divine. They bring caution more often than wisdom and a certain belief in the unreality of joy. A man is quickly disillusioned, which commonly means that he has set up his own idea of what things should be by the side of what things are and sulks forever at the result. He then commits the folly of becoming old and prefers existence to life. He clambers into one or other of the many shelters that line the way, curls up within and smiles pitifully at the young of all ages pressing on to some end, no matter what, alive to the beauty of the sky and the clouds and the birds and the trees, alive even to the beauty to be seen in one another, breathing deeply of the air of strength, living and loving and beloved, until at last they are made one with nature. But the heart, like the liver, grows torpid without exercise; a gradual decay comes to the man in the shelter, a decay from which he is released, much against his will, by death.
There are too many shelters.—Hugh de Selincourt.

Anne Boleyn in Spain.

After Henry VIII. divorced Catharine of Aragon, the favorite daughter of Ferdinand and Isabella, and married Anne Boleyn there was intense disgust therein in Spain, and to show their abhorrence they for years carried around annually in procession a huge alligator (a tarascan, which strictly means a serpent), and out of the back of this animal sprang a female figure intended for Anne Boleyn. This figure they called the "Anavolena" (Anne Boleyn, the "b" and "v" being almost interchangeable in Spanish). The idea, of course, was Protestantism, personified by Anne Boleyn, springing out of the fool beast of the slime. The tarascan is shown to the curious, with the An-avolena complete, in the hall of the Gigantes, which is approached from the gallery round the cloisters of the cathedral, the most interesting one in Spain.—Notes and Queries.

Got the Tea and the Lady.

Disraeli was in love with a widow, Mrs. Wyndham Lewis. One day, when he went to call the lady, sitting by the window, saw him approaching and ordered the servant to say that she was not at home. When the maid reached the hall the statesman was hanging up his overcoat.
"Mrs. Lewis, sir, is not at home," said the hurried maid.
"I did not ask for Mrs. Lewis," was the calm, statesmanlike reply.
"But I don't know when she will be back," urged the maid.
"Neither do I," philosophically replied Disraeli, "but I am going to wait till she comes back, so please make me a cup of tea."
He did wait, he got his tea, and he married the widow.

Real Estate.

Through the office of Henry H.
Read the estate formerly known as the Daniel A. White place, numbered 110 Glen avenue, Newton Centre, has been sold to Mr. John H. Allen. This estate comprises a large frame dwelling house with stable and about 30000 feet of land having a frontage of about 130 feet on Glen avenue. The whole assessed for $10,500 of which $4500 is on the land. The purchaser will make improvements and occupy later in the season.

Stephen Emery, executor, has sold through the office of Alvord Bros. to M. J. Clark, the estate 47 Hancock Ave., Newton Centre, consisting of a single house and 15200 feet of land, the whole assessed for $6,000 of which $1500 is on the lot and $4500 on the house.

W. H. Sumner has sold through the office of Alvord Bros. to H. F. Hatch, the estate 48 Oxford road, Newton Centre, consisting of a single frame house and 8900 square feet of land, he whole assessed for $6000, of which $4500 is on the house and $1500 on the land. Alvord Bros. have also sold for A. Babcock to G. W. Thompson, a lot of 5328 feet on the corner of Chesley road and Everett street, Newton Centre, assessed for $900. Alvord Bros. have leased for Mrs. H. A.
Winter to Major Lord, the house 833 Commonwealth Ave. and for Charles L. Smith the house 38 Lakewood park, Newton Highlands to Geo. W.
Pingree.

Paragon Park—Ask anyone who has been down to Paragon Park at Nantasket, what they think of it and it is a hundred to one that they say "It's the greatest show I ever saw," or words to that effect. This wonderland city by the sea has been opened a little more than two weeks and in that time it has succeeded in arousing more favorable comment than anything that ever came into the New England states before. Everyone is talking about it and everyone has nothing but the highest praise for the enterprise. Paragon Park is all that its name implies. It covers 20 acres and includes half a hundred ornamental buildings and 30 shows.
Without further cost one may listen to the concerts of the famous Mart-land Band, witness the free circus on the lagoon stage, see the wonderful electrical exhibit of 100,000 lights, visit the beautiful palm garden and other smaller attractions, too numerous to mention.

A Tale of a Tub. The two pretty American girls had met two delightful Englishmen on the way across and had given a cordial invitation, warmly seconded by their mother, to Sir Charles and his friend to visit them at their country home.

One day a message came saying the two men would arrive that afternoon. The family was thrown into a fever of excitement, and many plans of entertainment for their guests were suggested and abandoned. It was finally decided that, as Englishmen are notoriously fond of a "tub" and their guests were coming directly from the train, they should first be invited to take a bath. After that the hostess would rely on the inspiration of the moment.

The young men arrived promptly and after some demurring were hurried off to the bathroom. In about an hour they emerged and went immediately to their hostess, saying, "We are sorry to leave so soon, but we only came to make a call, and our train leaves in fifteen minutes."—Lippincott's.

Rice Enters and Wheat Enters.

Some writer once classified the population of the world into two groups—the rice eaters and the wheat eaters. With rice goes fish, and with wheat goes meat. Chemical analysis shows that each of these combinations forms a perfect diet, embracing all the necessary food elements. But while the wheat and meat diet requires an elaborate and expensive preparation to make it ready for use, the rice and fish diet is cheap and simple. It needs no slaughter houses, mills or bakeries, with dozens of other adjunctive factories. Fish and rice can be prepared for food by the simplest processes within fifteen minutes after they are brought to the pot. And so the rice eaters are able to live on a few pennies a day and yet thrive and become big and populous nations.—Kansas City Journal.

For People of Thirty.

"If you reach the age of thirty without having had any serious illness you will be likely to live till seventy or more," said a physician. "All the old folk I know reached thirty without any alarming maladies scored against them. From thirty on all you need do is to be careful, to observe a few simple rules of health. I should say that these rules are simple and good: "Eat fruit at breakfast and at luncheon.

"Avoid pastry, muffins, hot bread and buttered toast.

"Eat potatoes only once a day.

"Walk at least four miles in the open air daily.

"Do not drink tea or coffee.

"Take a daily bath and wash the face with warm water before retiring.

"Sleep eight hours."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

A Bran Pie.

Alfonso, king of Aragon, attended by several of his courtiers, called on a jeweler to inspect some of his wares. No sooner had he left the shop than the proprietor came running after him and complained that he had been robbed of a diamond of great value. The king returned to the shop and ordered a large vessel filled with bran to be brought and placed on the counter. He then commanded each of his courtiers to insert his hand closed and then withdraw it open. He was the first to begin, and after all had had their turn he asked the jeweler to empty the vessel on the counter. By this means the diamond was recovered and nobody was disgraced.

The Pygmy Hippopotamus.

One of the animals least known to the outside world is the pygmy hippopotamus of west Africa. It is just what its name implies, a pygmy hippopotamus. It is much smaller than the common hippopotamus, being no larger than an ordinary or fair sized hog. It differs somewhat from the common hippo in the character of its teeth, and instead of spending its time in the rivers and lakes in large herds it wanders about through the jungles singly or in pairs, much after the manner of swine in search of mast.

UP IN VERMONT

That's the place to go for a real vacation

A THOUSAND hills where cooling breezes blow—far more beautiful river valleys in America—a hundred miles of lake front on the islands and shores of the most picturesque lake in New England.

Good hotels, comfortable farm and village homes, delightful camping spots on Champlain's shores and islands—all on the line of the Central Vermont Railway.
Send six cents to E. H. Bailey, S. E., P. O. 369 Washington St., Boston, for a copy of "Summer Homes," 150 pictures and 150 pages describing resorts on the islands and shores of Lake Champlain, among the green hills of Vermont, in Canada and the Adirondacks.

LADIES After going elsewhere and being disappointed with treatment received call on Miss Whitney, the Complexion Specialist, and be convinced that "rinkles" can be removed and all blemishes of the skin. Much airing done by experts only—shampoo, facial treatment, etc.; also taught in all its branches.

Coming Attractions

Tremont Theatre—The regular Summer Season at the Tremont Theatre will be inaugurated next Monday with the first Boston performance of "Kafoozelium," a new musical oddity by Allen Lowe and George Rosey, with added musical numbers by Paul Schindler. The opera is a genuine novelty in that all of the scenes are laid underground, in the mythical kingdom of Turvianna, inhabited by people who have never been up on earth. Access to this underground realm is gained by an American promoter and a Boston newspaper woman, who, while exploring a mine in Montana, fall through a bottomless shaft and land in the midst of Turvianna, where they meet the King Kafoozelium. The plot concerns the organization of a company to sell stock for Radianna's radium mines and what happens after Kafoozelium takes a trip up on earth to inspect Boston. Miss Elsie Fay, always a great favorite in Boston, will be seen as Nellie Dunne, the newspaper woman, while Dave Lewis, the well-known and popular comedian, will appear in the title role of Kafoozelium.

Keith's Theatre—An actor who is a pronounced favorite with theatregoers of Boston and New England generally, will be the principal entertainer in the Keith program the week of June 26. He is Frank Keenan, known far and wide as the Sol Smith Russell of the varieties, who will make his appearance in a one-act play entitled, "At the Threshold," which is considered by critics everywhere to be one of the best little plays ever seen in vaudeville. Mr.
Keenan is supported by Francis Fontaine and Edward Elsmere, two promising actors. The surrounding show will be one of the strongest and best of the season, including Mile Chester and her $10,000 statue dog, in the unique novelty, "Pictures of the Hunt"; Searl and Violet Allen in the comedy talking, singing and dancing sketch, "The Sign Painters"; Aurie Dagwell, "The Girl of '61"; in character songs; Niblo and Riley, conversational comedians; Gallardo, a comic and artistic clown, and Stone and Lind, comedy club jugglers and exponents of physical culture. The Fadette woman's orchestra, who are far more popular than ever, will make an entire change of selections, and a complete new list of comedy and interesting motion pictures will be shown in the biography.

Empire Theatre—So pronounced has been the success scored by the Empire Musical Comedy Company in its presentation under the general direction of Adolphe Mayer, of "Jack and the Beanstalk," at the Empire Theatre, Boston, that a second week was deemed imperative. Consequently for the week beginning Monday, June 26, this musical extravaganza is again the attraction. "Jack and the Bean-stalk," is a merry pot-pourri of melody, dialogue, quaint characters and pretty mise-en scenes; it pleases the children and their elders. For the former, it serves as living pictures from their nursery books and for the latter it brings back childhood memories in good, healthy, happy fashion.
It is therefore no wonder that during the current week the Empire Theatre has been crowded by audiences bubbling over with good nature and with enthusiasm.

Newton High Prize Drill.

The Newton high school battalion practically went out of existence as a military organization, after a career of more than 20 years, at the close of the annual outdoor drill last Friday afternoon.

The drill was held on the school field, off Otis street, Newtonville, and was largely attended. One member of the school committee was present. The various manoeuvres and manual were carried out with snap and finish. The exercises included company competition, artillery drill, Lieut. Clevenger commanding; individual competition, Adj't W. I. Fearing commanding; signal corps drill, Lieut. Rochford, commanding, and evening parade, Maj. F. M. Green commanding. At the close of the evening parade prizes were awarded by Abbot Bassett of the school committee as follows:

First company prize won by Company F sword awarded to Captain J.
Bunker and gold medals to Lieut. H.
Palmer Millard and First Serg't Young.

Second Company prize won by Company E, Silk flag for Captain H.
Turner silver medals for First Lieut.
F. S. King and Second Lieut. Watkins. First individual prize—gold medal, won by Serg't M. Holmes; second individual prize, silver medal, Serg't C. Pierce; honorable mention, bronze medals, Corp. R. George, Priv. E. Luitweiler, Serg't H. Billings.

The judges were Col. G. H. Ben-yon, Lieut. Frederic M. Kendall and Lieut. G. H. Daniels of the M. V. M.

The Royal Arcanum.

"I believe the whole thing to be a grand steal!" "These rates are merely guesswork!" "The whole is a scheme to freeze out the old members!" "We are not guaranteed anything!" Such and other similar remarks on the part of speakers at a joint session Monday evening of the various Newton councils of the Royal Arcanum held in Denison Hall, Newtonville, contrived to make the meeting a somewhat lively one. The session was called that the members of Channing, Mt Ida, Echo Bridge and Triton councils might hear and discuss the rates and options to take effect in the order (Oct. 1. About 200 were present.

H. A. Boynton, grand secretary, presided, and assisting him in the various explanations which he was called on to give were, Alfred T.
Turner, the supreme auditor, and Supreme Secretary Robson. Before the meeting a printed flyer was circulated, entitled "A Plea for the Old Members," which, after going into the details concerning the founding of the order its rates, etc., asked the question, "Was the proposed raise in rates due to the carelessness of the officials in the acceptance of risks?" and ended with the statement that "there is but one remedy—demand the resignation of the supreme officers who are responsible for this unfair plan." No action was taken as to the circular, though it produced a deep impression.

Four options of special rates were presented by the grand secretary, and that those present might follow him, printed copies were circulated. Little was said during the reading and explanation of these options, but at the close questions in rapid-fire order began to fly toward the platform from all directions. With half an eye it was plain from the tenor of these inquiries that 90 per cent. of those present were decidedly opposed to the new rate plan.

C. F. Shirley was one of the principal speakers, and said so many different options had been presented for consideration that no one knew or understood very much about any of them. "I consider the whole of them," he said, "a mere matter of guesswork." "You here," replied Supreme Auditor Turner, "are but a small part of the Royal Arcanum.
While these rates may not be favorable to you, there are others who may appreciate them. I believe the figures presented in these tables to be accurate and reliable. In Colorado the members are favorably inclined toward the change."

A. A. Witherbee admitted that while there were members in Colorado and also in this state who might be favorably inclined, the rank and file were not. "Do you think," said he,
"that the young men are going to join this order and feel that as each year goes by they will have to pay more and more up to the time when they get to be old men, and then have to get out?"

Following a further explanation of the choice of options, one of which would allow the order to accumulate a large fund, and the other to get along without it, Mr. Shirley again took the floor. "I think the whole thing," he declared, "is a contemptible evasion of insurance principles, when a man can pay a lower rate and get the same benefits as those who have to pay a higher rate. I have been in several insurance companies, and I must say that the Royal Arcanum is the only one that did not keep its contract."

"The Royal Arcanum," replied Mr.
Turner, "never made a contract to insure you for a certain amount for any time, therefore it has broken no contracts. Fraternal insurance is still a matter of experiment, in all the orders. We have now found it necessary that the rates should be changed."

"I believe that the whole scheme is one grand steal," declared H. H. Tilton. "If there is $2,000,000 in an emergency fund, why has it not been used? I cannot understand why, if the younger members of the order have to pay an increase of only 10 per cent, the older ones, who have been carrying it along all these years, should have to pay an increase of 400 per cent."

"I for one," asserted Abbot Bassett, do not believe in the proposition that the old members shall either have to bear the burden of the order or get out. That is just what this change of rates means, and I believe that 99 per cent. of the older members will leave the order. You have presented here tonight five or six options which we do not understand, except that they mean a prohibitive price."

A particularly strong speech favoring rational action was made by E.
W. Bailey. "The trouble is," he said, "that these rates are too high in some places and too low in others.
Today we do not know how long before another change may have to be made. What guarantee have we today that these new rates are going to be enough to carry along the order in the face of the estimate that 100,000 members are about to leave it. I tell you, brothers, this is a fraternal order, and fraternity alone will save it."

After numerous other remarks the grand secretary showed those present that in spite of protests and other action by local councils, nothing could be accomplished except through the grand council. "When the rates were changed in 1898," he said, "we had this same trouble, this same talk about leaving the order, but the actual net loss in membership was not more than 6000. You may meet and send in protests which will be received but nothing will be accomplished. It is only through the grand council that you can work. All this talk about secession or the forming of another order will not amount to anything."

It being 11 o'clock at the close of Mr. Boynton's address, the meeting ended, nothing having been done except a free expression of objection to the new rates.

Literary Notes.

Pearson's Magazine for July presents an attractive collection of early summer reading, both in breezy short stories and in timely special articles.
Chief among the latter is R. H.
Graves' "Our Annual National Slaughter," recapitulating the enormous army of Fourth of July victims annually killed or maimed while celebrating Independence Day. "Points About Sea Swimming" and "The Camping Wagon" treat of subjects that will interest everyone longing for the wilderness and relief from the heat of a sweltering city. Charles M. Harvey contributes a timely article on "The Fortunes Earned by American Railroads," Charles C. Johnson in an article entitled the "Star Spangled Banner" tells of a wonderful industry of patriotism which has sprung up among us. "The Swiss of the Lariat" is an account of how, recently, the cowboy king won his laurels as champion roper. The Professor of Getting Hurt" and "How to Make Money Out of Pets" complete the list of articles. Of fiction there are ten contributions, beginning with the return of Don Quixote, and including a moonshiner's story, an Apache story, a yachting story, two love stories, and others.

Miss Tarbell's character sketch of John D. Rockefeller, the first intimation on his personality by the historian of Standard Oil leads McClure's for July. It is a recital of marvellous interest telling for the first time the astounding story of the things that have gone to make Rockefeller what he is. Lincoln Steffens has reconsidered Ohio and tells in "Ohio: A Tale of Two Cities" the inspiring story of "the best-governed city in the United States." Another article of hopeful tone is the second half of Henry Beach Needham's "College Athlete," which has created so much atir in undergraduate athletics. He makes further disclosures of rottenness in college sport; but there is a remedy, and he points it out. As always in this magazine the articles take a strong grip on the affairs of the day. The fiction for July is clean, vigorous and entertaining.

Sewell Ford and Richard Washburn Child have powerful stories illustrated in tint. There is a blood-curdling tale of adventure in Borneo by Henry C. Rowland, a Christian Science story that would bring a smile from an idol, and two charming little bits of the "old, old story" in a new guise; among the picture features are the latest portraits of the President and his family, reproduced in full page size in the tints of the photographer's proofs.

Newton Hospital Catholic Aid Society.

Bray Hall, Newton Centre, was the scene, last Friday evening, of an assembly and whist party, given by the Newton Hospital Catholic Aid Society.
More than 600 of the leading Catholic residents, with friends, were present.
The hall was handsomely decorated, and in spite of the warmth of the evening dancing was enjoyed until 12.
Some 150 tables of whist provided a less strenuous form of amusement in the Bray small hall.

Thomas M. Holden was floor director and Dr. Joseph Stanton assistant floor director. On their staff of aids were J. F. Foley, T. J. Sullivan, T. J. Lyons, Dr. F. J. Costello, G.
P. Flood, J. F. Flood, P. S. Cuniff, George King, Charles Sheridan, J.
J. Gill, Dr. Edward Fall, F. H.
Stuart and others.

The object of the society, which has been organized but a few months, is to place a number of free beds in the Newton Hospital for the poor of the city, irrespective of creed.

EVERETT-KENDAL.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Kendal on Park street last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock when their niece Miss Winnifred Isadore Kendal was united in marriage to Mr.
Waldo Clarence Everett of Boston, son of Mr. A. F. Everett of Franklin.

Only the relatives were present. Rev.
Frank A. Everett, pastor of the Franklin Methodist church, and the brother of the groom, performed the ceremony. The best man was Mr.
Paul E. Everett of Franklin, nephew of the groom and the maid of honor Miss Olive J. Kendal of Newton, sister of the bride. The bride wore a gown of white silk figured crepe with satin and lace trimmings and carried white peonies. The maid of honor's dress was white figured muslin with lace and she carried pink roses. A reception followed, the bridal couple being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Kendal and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Everett. The wedding music was furnished by Miss Ella Marston Cox who wore a dress of all over cream lace over light blue chiffon tulle and silk. The house decorations were tropical plants, white peonies and roses combined with red, white and blue draperies. After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Everett will make their home at New London, N. H., where they will receive their friends after October 1st.

Auburndale.

The Auburndale Base Ball Club plays the Brooks Club on the home grounds on Saturday.

The Eli Canoe Club and the Eagle Canoe Club of Auburndale were represented in the regatta held on the Charles river at Waltham last Saturday.

At the Woodland Park Hotel last Friday evening the senior class of the Watertown high school held their clash dinner. Later dancing was enjoyed.

Miss Frances M. Rooney daughter of Mrs. Mary Rooney passed away at her home on Marlboro street last Saturday after a long period of failing health. She was a native of Newton and was 24 years of age. Deceased was employed as a stenographer in one of Boston's business houses and was an active worker in St. Bernard's church. The funeral was held from the house Monday morning at 8:15, high mass following at the church at 9. The interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

A Midnight Session With Important Action.

Street Railway and Wire Locations with Promise of $1.00 Gas.

The board met at 7:45 p. m. President Saltonstall in the chair. Present: Aldermen, Baker, Bishop, Bosson, Bowen, Brown, Cabot, Day, Dennison, Doherty, Ellis, Ensign, Hunt, Palmer, Riley, Stone, Underwood, Webster, Weston, White.

The meeting was the last before the summer vacation and many matters of interest were crowded into the session which continued until after midnight, a substantial repast during the recess, being of great assistance in the deliberations of the board.

HEARINGS.

A hearing was announced upon the petition of the Newton Street Railway Company for permission to extend its location to Riverside, crossing Commonwealth avenue and Auburn street and private lands.

President Adams D. Claffin. This petition is for the purpose of giving the central section of the city access to the railroad at Riverside station, and to reach the river at that point. There is no feasible way of reaching Riverside except across private land, and we have acquired a right of way ending at the Boat club. We only ask the right to cross Auburn street at right angles and to reach our tracks on the boulevard. The third track on the avenue is to facilitate the passage of cars from Riverside. We intend to run the cars through the winter months as there is considerable business at the Riverside end and practically none at the Weston end. It is intended to alternate the cars to Riverside and to the park terminal. There was no remonstrance.

A hearing was announced upon the petition of the Newton and Boston Street Railway Company to connect with the track of the Boston and Worcester Street Railway Co at Elliot street.

President Claffin. We desire to connect the tracks of the Newton and Boston Company with those of the Boston and Worcester company and enable us to run a line from Needham and Upper Falls direct to Lake street. This cannot be done until the grade crossing work is completed and the two companies have an arrangement by which these cars can use the Worcester tracks, and thence through Centre at Lake street. This gives the south side a through connection, the same as exists on the north side. There was no remonstrance.

A hearing was announced upon the petition of John A. Potter et al to remove trees on Waltham street. Prof. A. E. Bailey spoke in opposition unless the removal was made for the benefit of the remaining trees. At the hearings announced upon the petitions of the N. E. Tel and Tel Co for pole location on Vernon st, for attachments on Chase st and upon taking land for sewer in Dale street no one appeared and they were severally declared closed.

A hearing was announced upon the petition of the Mass. Pipe Line Company (Boston Consolidated Gas Company) for locations for mains in California and Bridge streets.

Mr. John A. Gould, chief engineer of the company. The object of the petition is to supply the Waltham company with gas. The line is planned to go through the least objectionable streets, one unusually wide and not a thoroughfare. The work is to be done by day labor and by a man who has done similar and satisfactory work in Brookline and for the Metropolitan park commission. The work will also be done under the supervision of the Street Commissioner and city engineer of Newton.

There was no remonstrance.

FROM THE MAYOR.

Submitting report of commission to determine payments on account of metropolitan sewer.

Suffolk, ss. Supreme Judicial Court. In Equity.

Henry H. Sprague, Henry P. Walcott and James A. Bailey Jr, Members of the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Board, Petitioners.

In the matter of the South Metropolitan Sewerage System. (St. 1899, ch. 424.)

REPORT AND AWARD OF THE COMMISSIONERS.

The Commissioners appointed in the above case, after due notice, met the attorneys, solicitors and representatives of the several cities and towns named in the petition, and fully heard such evidence and arguments as were offered and made in behalf of each city and town, and now after careful consideration of the same, award, determine, and report to the Court as follows:—

The petition is a petition for the appointment of commissioners under the provisions of Section 16 of Chapter 424 of the Acts of the year 1899, being entitled "An Act to provide for the construction of a high level gravity sewer for the relief of the Charles and Neponset River Valleys," to determine the proportion in which each of the cities and towns comprising said System shall annually pay money into the treasury of the Commonwealth for the term of five years to meet the interest and sinking fund requirements for each of said years as estimated by the Treasurer, and to meet the cost of maintenance and operation of said system for each of said years as estimated by the said Board and certified to said treasurer, and any deficiency in the amount previously paid in as found by said treasurer.

There have been four Boards of Commissioners previously appointed by this Court to determine the proportion in which the several cities and towns should bear the costs of construction, maintenance, and operation of the metropolitan sewers under statutes substantially similar to the act in question.

The first Board was appointed in May, 1891, and made its report in November, 1891, in which the commissioners say:

"We have come to the conclusion that there is upon the whole no method more just and equitable than to apportion the payments on account of the interest and sinking fund requirements of the loan which represents the first cost of the systems with primary reference to the total taxable valuations of the several cities and towns; and the payments on account of the cost of maintenance and operation with primary reference to their respective populations."

The Second Board was appointed in October, 1895, and made its report in October, 1896, adopting the same basis for the apportionment, and say:

"We have been unable to find upon the whole any better measure of the ability and duty to contribute to the cost of public works of this character than the taxable valuations of the several cities and towns which compose the districts for whose common welfare these systems were created or any better measures of the use enjoyed and the benefits received by the several municipalities than the number of persons who dwell within their respective limits."

The third Board was appointed in March, 1900, being the first apportionment made for the South Metropolitan System, and in the report the Commissioners say:

"There does not seem on the whole to be any fairer method of assessing the cost of construction of great public undertakings of this kind than that of assessing such cost on the various cities and towns according to their taxable valuation. On the other hand, it is undoubtedly true that after construction the use made of the sewerage system by each city and town depends upon the number of inhabitants in such city or town, and as the cost of maintenance and operation is directly proportional to the amount of sewage discharged, i. e., the use made of the system, it would seem that the basis of population would be a just and equitable method of assessing such expense."

The fourth Board was appointed in May, 1901, for the North Metropolitan Sewer System, and made its report, in which the Commissioners say:

"We have been urged by the representatives of several municipalities to adopt a different method of distribution than that followed by the Commissioners who have previously made the apportionment, but the weight of opinion expressed at the hearings was very clearly in favor of continuing the methods hitherto adopted, and in our judgment, particularly in view of precedent, the weight of argument demands such course. We are satisfied that the plan adopted accomplishes substantial justice in the distribution of the burden in accordance with the benefits received."

All of these reports were accepted by the court and the basis of apportionment approved.

While we do not feel bound absolutely by the rule or basis of apportionment thus adopted, and should feel at liberty to correct any errors which the practical working of the rule might seem to us to require or to deal with any new condition of things arising since the other apportionments were made, still we cannot but feel that a rule thus adopted by four different boards after full hearing and trial and approved and sanctioned by this court and acted on by all and acquiesced in by at least a very large majority of the municipalities effected for so many years, ought not to be departed from except for the strongest reasons.

In the apportionment of the payments of the money needed to meet the requirements of the statute in question among the municipalities named in the act, it is manifest that any rule or basis adopted must be general in its application to avoid any question of favoritism to any particular locality arising under it, and must be made too, so far as possible, with due regard to the rules and the general system or methods of taxation adopted and sanctioned by the laws of the Commonwealth.

At the hearings before us the towns of Brookline and Milton both objected to an apportionment based on the assessed valuation of the towns for the construction of the sewer, but made no objection to the basis of population for the cost of its maintenance and operation. Both of these towns are wealthy, residential towns, and the assessed valuation of each is large in proportion to its area and population—very much larger than that of any other city or town in the District; and it was urged upon us with a good deal of zeal and earnestness that, because of this large valuation, any apportionment made on the basis of it would work injustice and be inequitable and unjust to these towns.

We have examined the claims thus made, and we have examined also much of the evidence, arguments, and suggestions made to the Commissioners who made the awards above referred to, but we are unable to find that the claims made in behalf of these towns are well founded, or that either town has any just cause of complaint. On the contrary, we are clearly of the opinion that the basis of assessed valuation for the cost of construction and population as a basis for the cost of maintenance and operation, while open, of course, to some criticisms, approximates more nearly to a just and equitable apportionment than any other basis or method suggested or which has occurred to us. The rule is simple, plain, and practicable; easily understood and easily applied, and accords most nearly with our established principles of taxation, and we accordingly adopt this rule in making the apportionment.

The valuations set forth in the tables are published in Chapter 178 of the Acts of 1904, and involve real and personal estate, bank stock and shipping, and are the valuations used in assessing the state tax. For all of the contributing municipalities except Boston and Dedham, the whole valuation of the city or town has been used. In Boston the South Metropolitan District embraces all of the Brighton District and parts of the Back Bay, Roxbury, West Roxbury, and Dorchester Districts. In the Town of Dedham a small area of the southerly corner adjacent to the Neponset River is excluded. The valuation of the parts of Boston included in the district and of the parts of Dedham not excluded, were compiled by or under the direction of the Chief Engineer of the Metropolitan Water Board, and were assumed by all parties to be correct.

In the table of population the census determinations of 1900 are taken for all the cities and towns except Boston, and for those of Boston included in the district they are compiled from official sources under the direction of the Chief Engineer, and are correct.

The counsel for the Town of Watertown asked us to exclude one hundred and five acres in the northwesterly and northerly part of the town with a valuation of $219,750 and a population of 333 from the valuation and population in making the apportionment on the ground that this area cannot be drained into the South Metropolitan System without great expense, and on the further ground that the town has applied to the Legislature for the admission of that part of the town into the North System but as the territory in question still lies in and forms a part of the South District, we have not excluded it.

No other city or town made any objection or suggested any change in the method of apportionment although each city and town was represented before us by counsel at nearly all of the hearings held.

1. Interest and Sinking Fund Requirements. We therefore determine and award that the several cities and towns in the South Metropolitan District shall annually pay money into the treasury of the Commonwealth for the term of five years, 1905 to 1909, both inclusive, to meet the interest and sinking fund requirements for each of said years, as estimated by said treasurer, of the Metropolitan Sewerage Loan authorized and issued for the construction of said South Metropolitan System, including the interest and sinking fund requirements of the former Charles River Valley and Neponset Valley systems, so called, and any deficiency in the amount previously paid in, as found by said treasurer, in the proportions shown in the right-hand column of the following table:—

Automobile Accident.

Through a mistake in handling his automobile, Charles T. Estabrook of West Newton, was killed at ten o'clock last Friday evening at Narblehead. Frank E. Rhoades of West Roxbury was bruised and shaken up.
Miss Rose Lamoreaux of Boston was injured about the chest and has a sprained ankle, and Albina Bassett of Boston received an injury to her leg. The accident occurred on the pier of the Boston Yacht Club. The party had driven from Boston, had been dining at the clubhouse, and had spent the evening there. At about ten o'clock they mounted the car, with Mr. Estabrook, the owner, at the wheel. The car was then standing on the pier facing the harbor, a few feet away from the edge.
Whether Mr. Estabrook failed to throw in his reverse or thought that he had left his machine with the gear reversed and thought he was starting backward may never be known, but the car, instead of moving away from the edge of the pier, suddenly plunged over the edge, mounting a timber a foot high, and fell twelve or fifteen feet to the bottom of the harbor. The tide was out and the car was plunged into the mud while the others were thrown clear before the car struck. Mr. Estabrook was pinioned down by the steering wheel.

The accident was witnessed by J.
B. Chase, Jr., of West Newton, who was standing in a clubhouse window, and Clarence W. W. Estabrook, a brother of Charles T., who was on the pier. When he saw his brother go over the edge, Clarence fainted. Mr.
Chase and other members and attendants of the club rushed to the assistance of the injured. The two young women and Mr. Rhoades were found to be free from the machine, but it was only after ropes and timbers had been brought, that Mr. Estabrook was extricated. He was unconscious and was taken to a drug store nearby, and physicians were summoned. He was badly crushed about the chest and remained unconscious up to the time of his death, which occurred at 10:30 o'clock. The young women were attended to at the Felton and were brought to their homes in Boston Saturday.

The victim of the accident was the son of Theodore A. Estabrook, was unmarried and lived with his father at 25 Fountain street, West Newton.
He was about thirty years of age, and was employed by the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company as a bookkeeper. He was a prominent member of the Boston Yacht Club, and had had considerable experience with automobiles and with motor boats.

Funeral services were held from his late home on Fountain street Monday afternoon at four o'clock and there were many present.

The service was conducted by Rev.
Francis Tiffany of Cambridge, whose ministrations, including prayers and the reading of selections from the Scriptures, were interspersed with several hymns sung by the Albion Quartet of male voices. After the service at the house, the burial took place in Newton Cemetery, the following men serving as pall-bearers: Clarence W. Estabrook, George C.
Estabrook, Louis Homer, Armory H.
Waite, F. J. Burrage and Herbert P. Leavitt.

Drowning Accident.

Another fatality in the list of river accidents took place Sunday afternoon on Charles river near Kenrick bridge, above the Upper Falls. Charles D. Grundy of Roxbury was the victim and his brother, Albert G. Grundy and Leroy G. Crowell of Revere were rescuers in an exhausted condition.

From statements made later by the brother it appeared that Albert was reaching for his shoes in the rear of the canoe, and his brother at the same time tried to reach a box of candy which was behind him and on the same side of the canoe. The combined movements upset the canoe and the three young men were thrown into the water. Assistance was rendered by a passing canoe, which took Albert and Crowell to the bank, but was unable to return for Charles until he had sunk for the last time. The Newton police were notified and the river searched for the body which was found in twelve feet of water at about 6:35. It was removed to Pratt's undertaking rooms at Newton Centre and viewed by the Medical Examiner. The dead man was a printer by trade and unmarried.

Newton Hospital.

The Board of Trustees held a most interesting quarterly meeting at the Hospital on Tuesday, June 27th. The members present were: President Leeson; Messrs W. H. Coolidge, W. H. Gould, E. B. Haskell, J. T. Lodge and Miss C. A. Lovett; Drs. W. H. Hunt, F. E. Porter, F. S. Hunt, Messrs H. E. Bothfeld, G. S. Bullens, F. A. Day, B. Early, W. Farley, Geo. Hutchinson, C. L. Travelli, W. P. Tyler, G. R. Pulsifer and W. C. Bray.

The reports show that as the charity work develops there must be an ever-increasing circle of friends who will share in the responsibilities and expense of this important charity. One new association has already been formed—the Catholic Hospital Aid Association, and the sincere thanks of the Board were acknowledged to Mr. Bernard Early and to those who have been associated with him in this movement.

On Tuesday a special Committee from this organization presented in person to the Trustees, a gift of six hundred dollars for two free beds, supplementing a gift of five hundred dollars which had already been made by one prominent member. This additional and permanent source of support is most pleasing and the spirit of co-operation and interest in the work of the Hospital is most encouraging to those who bear the burdens of administration.

The vacancy on the Board caused by the death of Mr. Lucius G. Pratt was filled by the election of Mr. Herbert A. Wilder.

The plans for the new Domestic Building "have been approved, and work will be begun at an early date. Most valuable service has been rendered by the ladies of the Hospital Aid Association; by Wm. D. Mann, M. D., Superintendent of the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital, and by George H. M. Rowe, M. D., Superintendent of the Boston City Hospital. In recognition of the services, the following resolutions were passed:

RESOLVED—That the grateful thanks of this Board be recorded and given to the Hospital Aid Association, its President, officers and all who have helped by contribution or otherwise to make a new Domestic Building possible.

RESOLVED—That the Board express its sense of appreciation of the kindness and effective assistance rendered to the committee in charge of plans for the new Domestic Building, by William D. Mann, M. D., Supt. of the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital.

That this Resolution be entered on the Minutes of the Board and a copy thereof be forwarded to Dr. Rowe.

That this Resolution be entered on the Minutes of the Board and a copy thereof be forwarded to Dr. Mann.

July Fourth.

The Newton Centre Improvement Association is making elaborate preparations for its 22d annual public celebration on July 4th. The committee in charge consists of Messrs George W. Pratt, chairman, E. Ray Spear, M. S. Buckley, A. C. Walworth Jr., A. E. Alvord, T. B. Plimpton, F. G. Melcher and C. B. Corton. The events are as follows: 10 a. m. Automobile events on the Cedar street grounds; 3:30 p. m. Tennis on the Newton Centre Squash Tennis courts, corner Chestnut terrace and the boulevard. 6:00 p. m. Band concert and water sports on Crystal Lake followed by fireworks from raft at 8 p. m.

The auto races are as follows: The first event is for stock runabout, and the second for touring cars, the conditions for the same being as follows: Half-way round track a hat rack will be placed. Driver and one passenger will go from standing start to hat rack, will then leave auto in rear of opponent's auto and vest complete circuit to hat rack, put on coat and rest, and finish. Contestant making best time will win.

In the touring car class the same terms as event one, except car will carry full complement of driver and three passengers, who will be required to remove coat and vest and resume same, as above outlined, but driver will not be expected to leave seat during race.

The other events are: Runabout pursuit race, stock machines only—One auto to start from tape, one from half-way round track. Each auto to carry driver and one passenger, who will be supplied with 12 bean bags. The auto first hit on any part, or whose occupants are first hit by the bean bag thrown by occupant in rear of opponent's auto loses race.

Touring car pursuit race, stock machines only—Same terms as event three, except touring car carries driver and three passengers, each of whom is supplied with six bean bags apiece. Same rules as event three govern as to winner.

Free for all, potato race—A number of potatoes will be placed at intervals along track. Pail will be placed beside starting point. Driver and one passenger will be carried by each auto. Auto will be driven in turn to each potato which passenger must dismount and pick up. Auto will then back up to starting point, where potatoes can be dropped in pail. Potatoes dropped outside of pail disqualify contestants.

Suitable prizes will be awarded for each event. Entrance fee $1 for each event.

WALNUT STREET FRONTAGE CLAFLIN ESTATE AND HIGH SCHOOL.

The proposed purchase by public subscription for presentation to the City of Newton of a large part of the Claflin estate on Walnut street, adjoining the Newton High School, offers the people of this city an exceptional opportunity to secure for all time such advantages as are rarely combined in one benefaction.

To the Newton High School it will immediately give the most generous play grounds, ample space for foot ball and baseball fields, tennis courts, a running track, and all that goes to make up a first class athletic ground. The land is level, and in fact is the only piece of sufficient size and proper character for the purpose in the vicinity of the School.

Here also, in good time, may be built a properly equipped gymnasium with swimming pool, something of which this City has long been in need and for which many have hoped. Looking still further into the future, on this land would also be placed the new building giving the increased accommodations in the High School which will be absolutely necessary within a few years. The City would be saved the purchase of additional land adjoining the present High School lot which would be inadequate for the purpose. Newton must have a manual training school, and on the broad acres of this estate there will be an appropriate and convenient site for this building. As the City grows, and its demands increase, there will be room for other public buildings, so that in time there would be grouped with the present handsome High School building as a nucleus, the various public buildings of the city, making a civic centre in a setting of rare natural beauty.

This, in brief, is what is in the minds of the public spirited gentlemen who have brought the matter to its present stage. In point of locality the site commended itself not only because of its contiguity to the High School, but also because it is within easy walking distance of the Boston and Albany Railroad and of the Commonwealth Avenue electric cars, the two main lines of east and west travel through the City, and also of the two cross town lines running north and south.

Historically and sentimentally the estate appeals to all interested in the City's welfare for from colonial times when it was part of the farm of Governor Simon Bradford, to the present day, it has been perhaps the best known estate in Newton. Here General Hull had his house which was later moved to the village to become in its latter days the first home of the Newton Club. Above all it was the suburban residence of the late Governor William Claflin. Fifty years ago he bought this estate, and during the generation which ensued, entertained men and women prominent in literature, in politics, in education, in charity, and in philanthropy.

A generous response has been made by many of the leading citizens of Newton to the suggestion which has been quietly made to them that this opportunity should not be allowed to pass unimproved, and the appeal is now made to all the people of Newton to give, whether in large or small amounts, so that the Committee who shall receive the funds may have the means to secure this property. Messrs. Hornblower and Weeks, 53 State street, Boston, will receive the subscriptions, which will be turned over to the following committee:

For Newton, Mr. Frank A. Day; for Newtonville, Mr. Charles S. Denison; for West Newton, Mr. Robert S. Gorham; for Auburndale, Mr. E. B. Haskell; for Newton Highlands, Mr. Frank J. Hale; for Newton Centre, Mr. Charles E. Kelsey; for Chestnut Hill, Mr. James A. Lowell.

Death of Henry S Braden

Lieutenant Henry S. Braden, an officer in the United States marshal's office at the Federal Building in Boston, and widely known in G. A. R. circles, died late Monday afternoon at the Newton Hospital, where he had been a patient for the last three weeks. Previous to his removal to the hospital deceased had made his home with his son in Auburndale.

Mr. Braden was born in Portland, Me., in 1838. Early in youth he came to Boston with his parents, who settled in East Boston. He learned the trade of carpenter, and at the breaking out of the war enlisted in Company C, Fourth Massachusetts Volunteers, which company was later merged into the First Regiment, of which Colonel Cowdin was in command. At Fortress Monroe Mr. Braden was promoted to sergeant and color bearer of the regiment. His command soon took part in the peninsula campaign of 1861 and assisted in the capture of Norfolk and Suffolk. In this campaign his company was merged into the Twenty-Ninth Massachusetts Regiment, under Colonel Barnes. The regiment then fought in the campaign under McClellan, being merged in the famous "Irish brigade," so-called, and which included the Ninth Massachusetts, the Sixty-Ninth New York and other distinctively Irish regiments of other States.

On the field during the "Seven Days" battle around Richmond in 1862. Mr. Braden, by his bravery won a commission as first lieutenant. During his four years' service in the army Mr. Braden fought in no less than eighteen pitched battles, in which his regiment lost seventy-five percent of its membership in killed and wounded. Lieutenant Braden during the war re-enlisted on the field in his old regiment. After the war he went into the produce and provision business at Faneuil Hall Market, where he remained for twenty-five years. Later he became janitor of the police building in Somerville, where he had taken up his residence, and after five years' service there, about seven years ago, he accepted the appointment of bailiff in the United States marshal's office in Boston. He was greatly interested in the Grand Army, of which he was one of the original members in Massachusetts, and served as commander of Willard C. Kinsley Post 139 of Somerville.

Subject to change without notice

The order was then adopted.

GALBRAITH-MCINTOSH.

Before the chance of Grace church, beautifully banked with palms, ferns and white flowers, Miss Helen Eob McIntosh, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fred L. McIntosh, became the bride of Archibald Victor Galbraith, Harvard '99. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Geo. W. Shinn, last evening at eight o'clock the church being completely filled with the many friends of the young couple.

The bride wore a gown of crepe de chine trimmed with point and duchess lace and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by Miss Frances Holt of Claremont, N. H. as maid of honor, attired in a white lace gown, with green sash and carrying a foliage bouquet. The bridesmaids, dressed in green silk mull, with half veils and carrying bouquets of white sweet peas were the Misses Caroline Slocum of Milton, Penn., Emma Baum of Claremont, N. H., Elma Popper of New York and Edith Cutler of Newton.

Mr. Galbraith was attended by John S. Galbraith, Harvard '99 as best man and the ushers were Messrs James Nowell of Cambridge, Theodore Watson of Milton, Clifford Rogers of Springfield, and Robert Nichols of Boston all Harvard men.

There was no formal reception but a few young friends of the bride and groom went to the McIntosh residence after the ceremony to extend good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith will enjoy a wedding trip to Europe for a stay of fourteen months.

Pupils Receive Honors.

Two pupils of the School of Our Lady on Adams street have been honored this week in receiving gold medals offered to schools in the archdiocese of Boston. The examinations were held in May on questions of Christian doctrine and the winners received 100 per cent.

Francis Leo Thomas received the Archbishop Williams medal for boys and Andrew J. Cunningham was awarded the Rt. Rev. Wm. Byrne's medal for boys. The medals were presented by the Archbishop last Tuesday morning at his residence on Union Park, Boston. Sarah A. Drennan received an honorable mention in the same examination.

PROBATE COURT.

MIDDLESEX, ss.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Edward B. Towne, late of Falm Alto in the County of Middlesex and State of California, deceased.

WHEREAS, a petition has been presented to said Court, by Emma Grace Towne, with certain papers purporting to be copies of the last will and testament of said deceased, and of the probate thereof in said State of California duly authenticated, representing that at the time of his death said deceased had estate in said County of Middlesex, on which said will may operate, and praying that the copy of said will may be filed and recorded in the Registry of Probate of said County of Middlesex, and letters testamentary thereon granted to her without requiring sureties on her bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the fifth day of September, A. D. 1905, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Newton Graphic, a newspaper published in Newton, the first publication to be thirty days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, CHARLES J. McINTIRE, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this twenty-sixth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and five.
